

Inuit Broadcasting Corporation On-line Video Descriptions

April 25, 2018

Introduction

The video descriptions below were created as part of IBC's 2015-16 project funded by Indigenous Affairs and Northern Development's Cultural Education Centres Program and the Government of Nunavut's Dept. of Culture and Heritage.

The videos and their descriptions in this file can be viewed on the following IBC Channel at: www.isuma.tv/ibc-2.

IBC also has the following other Channels on the Isuma.tv web platform:

<http://www.isuma.tv/pituqait> - new 2018 episodes (2016-17 episodes remain).
<http://www.isuma.tv/takuginai-web-series> - new 2018 episodes.
<http://www.isuma.tv/takuginai-web-series-archives> - 2015-2017 episodes.
<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc> - 804 including 200 new uploads in 2018 from the IFVA.
<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-3> - 200 in 2017 from the IFVA.
<http://www.isuma.tv/takuginai-educator-series> - 161 clips of Takuginai with descriptions in 2016 from the IFVA.

This Channel contains 360 videos on 30 web pages uploaded in 2015-16. Our priority was to upload Inuktitut (Inuktit) videos, but a number may include some English or English sub-titling. We apologize for any duplicate videos you may find.

This file contains approx. 306 video descriptions. The descriptions of the videos are in English with Inuktitut words also provided in some cases. The descriptions include only a brief outline of the content.

While some groups of videos may be listed below in the order that they appear on-line, the overall list is not sequential. A web link to each video has been provided at the beginning of the description.

To refresh content/make space for newer uploads of IBC videos on IBC's Channels, a number of the videos included in this document may have been deleted. For any URLs below that result in 'page not found' this is the reason. We apologize for the inconvenience. However, IBC retains all videos that have been posted on this platform on hard drives at the Inuit Film and Video Archives (IFVA) in Iqaluit, Nunavut, and in Ottawa, if they are of interest.

People and Place Names

Many Inuit names have multiple spellings. Also, due to time constraints, many of the names in the credits could not be included in the descriptions. Our apologies for any names that have been misspelled and also for any other errors or omissions not corrected during the editing process.

Video Copies

If you wish to order a copy of a video, please contact: info@inuitbroadcasting.ca

Descriptions

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00949riqauji-96-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out)

Qaujisaut was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centers.

Producer: Noah Tiktaq – Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Albert Kimmaliarjuk

Segment 1: People from various communities send out their Christmas greetings to friends and relatives.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00948riinu-90-11-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut

Producer: Noah Tiktaq – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Emily Karetak

Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: The Anglican Church Choir in Rankin Inlet sings Christmas songs.

Segment 2: Leo Subgut interviews Tooma Saumik, who talks about his recent hunting trip when he got lost. He describes each day and his activities during this time.

Segment 3: Mary Ann Tattuinee organizes a community feast to recognize the volunteers involved in the Search and Rescue of hunters who were lost on the land. This was a community feast after the rescue.

Segment 4: Community people and students of Rankin Inlet, Nunavut perform skits at the community hall.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: search and rescue, hunting, Christmas carols, community feast, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00947riinu-90-08-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut

Producer: Noah Tiktaq – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: Dominic Kasaluak talks about the history behind his great grandfather's binoculars. This piece of history has been passed down to him from his father.

Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 2: Elders from Rankin Inlet are randomly filmed to say something to their relatives.

Segment 3: Francis Kapuk talks about the string game. He tells a traditional story about the string game. He names his string formation.

This video finishes with Billy Kukshuk playing guitar.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: string games, binoculars, greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00946ritakuj-90-08-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: Each community in the Keewatin region challenges each other with a 15-minute walk.

Segment 2: Government employees are given recognition for years of employment.

Location: Chesterfield Inlet

Segment 3: Chesterfield Inlet celebrates Hamlet Days.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Hamlet Days, employee recognition, walk, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00945riqauji-95-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centers.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Producer: Charlie Panigoniak

Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: Rankin Inlet high school students participate in an out-on-the-land program. They also go caribou hunting.

Producer: Sally Iksiraq

Segment 2: Samson Quinnarnaq went back to his original home site. This was before his family got relocated to Baker Lake. This video shows the family fishing at a river.

Segment 3: Men from Iqaluit going hunting.

Producer: Paul Apak

Segment 4: The Health Department does a show and tell to inform people about AIDS.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: AIDS, hunting, land program, fishing, relocation, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00944riqauji-96-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Albert Kimmaliarjuk

Location: Baker Lake

Segment 1: Snowmobiles race in Baker Lake.

Host: Jean Kalluk

Location: Igloolik

Segment 2: Men go seal hunting in Igloolik in the springtime. Young people are taught about harpoon parts and how to set up a harpoon for hitting a seal through a seal hole in the ice.

Host: Albert Kimmaliarjuk

Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 3: Brian Nattat, a student, is learning how to work in a garage. His training takes place at Evo Shop, a local business in Rankin Inlet. He talks about what he is doing in the shop.

Host: Albert Kimmaliarjuk

Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 3: Ambrose Karlik talks about his training as a fire fighter for the Hamlet of Rankin Inlet.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: mechanic training, fire fighters, harpoon, seal hole, hunting, snowmobile racing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00943riqauji-95-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Host: Noah Papatsie

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Location: Taloyoak

Segment 1: Men go boating and seal hunting. An accordion player plays music in the background.

Camera: Sam Irkilik

Host: Sandy Irsigak

Segment 2: Rebecca Twyee from Rankin Inlet goes to Gjoa Haven to meet her relatives.

Location: Inukjuak, Quebec

Segment 3: In 1994, Inukjuak, Quebec had a music festival where some women sing on stage for the crowd.

Location: Igloolik

Segment 4: Elder Felix Alagalak talks about the dangers of ice forming in the fall. This is a good educational video about hunting on the sea ice. It shows how a harpoon should be used to test the formation of ice.

Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 5: Billy Twyee asks the people of Rankin Inlet where the capital of Nunavut should be.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: capital of Nunavut, ice formation, harpoon, music, accordion, concert, boat, seal hunting, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00942riqauji-y2k>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Host: Barney Arruaq

Producer: Baker Lake - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Location: Whitehorse, Yukon

Segment 1: The opening and closing ceremonies of the 2000 Arctic Winter Games in Whitehorse, Yukon, are shown along with several of the sports competitions.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Arctic Winter Games, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00940riinu-90-02-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak
Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: Mariano Aupilarjuk tells a legend to students in a classroom about two children going through challenges.

Segment 2: John Makkigak talks about his childhood. He tells the little girls to learn to sew and the boys how to build an igloo.

Segment 3: Joan Atuat and Annie Tatty talk about pregnancy and birthing.

Segment 4: The public is asked if they want the Inuit Broadcasting Corporation to continue its operations in spite of budget cuts.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: pregnancy, legend, sewing, child rearing, iglavigaq building, igloo building, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00939riinu-90-08-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: Rhoda Karetak talks about preparing seal skins for clothing. She talks about what type of skin is best for different types of clothing.

Segment 2: Annie Napayok shares her recollections during Remembrance Day. She remembers family members and relatives that have died.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Remembrance Day, seal skin, clothing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00938ritakuj-87-04-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Noah Tiktaq

Segment 1: A variety of people take the microphone to say Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00937ritakuj-89-02-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Marija Aliyak
Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: This is about the fire that ruined the Inuit Broadcasting Corporation production centre in Rankin Inlet. This video shows the staff setting up the new centre.

Segment 2: Manni Ulujuk High School students in Rankin Inlet organize a fishing derby to help raise funds for their trip to Vancouver.

Segment 3: People perform a variety of skits and songs for a crowd at the school gymnasium in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: fire, skits, fishing derby, singing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00936ritakuj-92-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut
Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: For over 100 years, Aboriginal children were removed from their families and sent to institutions called residential schools. The last residential schools closed in the mid-1990s. In 1992, the Truth and Reconciliation Commission went to Rankin Inlet to hear from the public about residential school experiences. Some Elders are shown giving a presentation to the group.

Segment 2: The Ajungittut Society organized a supper gathering where each mayoral candidate gives a speech about what they would do if elected Mayor for the town of Rankin Inlet.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: mayoral candidates, Elders, Residential Schools, Truth and Reconciliation Commission, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00935ritakuj-88-16-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Noah Tiktaq
Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: Members of the NWT Legislative Assembly meet in Rankin Inlet to discuss the helmet and registration act concerning all-terrain vehicles.

Segment 2: This video is about the Woman's Shelter and the Day Care in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 3: Children from Rankin Inlet's school sing and drum.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for

your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: drumming, singing, women's shelter, day care, NWT Legislative Assembly, helmet, all-terrain vehicle, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00934ritakuj-91-36-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Location: Arviat, Nunavut

Segment 1: Luke Suluk from Arviat talks about the new Visitor Centre that is being built and the different programs that will be in the building.

Segment 2: Rankin Inlet students go on a field trip. They are seen ice fishing at a lake nearby.

Segment 3: Felix Pissuk talks about dog teams and dog team racing.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: dog teams, dog team racing, ice fishing, visitor centre, tourism, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00933ritakuj-89-01-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Marijah Aliyak

Location: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

Segment 1: Elders talk about their reaction to the helmet bylaw for motor vehicles.

Segment 2: This is a short documentary about how fishing methods have changed. Elder Donat Anawak talks about how to make fish spear.

Location: Arviat

Segment 3: At the Arviat Music Festival, performers sing to the crowd.

Location: Chesterfield Inlet

Segment 4: The Chesterfield Inlet Hamlet Council received funding for a water reservoir. They prepare the new location where the water truck will fill up.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: fishing, fish spear, ajaja, concert, motor vehicle bylaw, helmet, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00932ritakuj-91-16-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut

Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Leo Subgut

Location: Gjoa Haven, Nunavut

Segment1: The Recreation Committee organizes a talent show for the public during Hamlet Day celebrations in Gjoa Haven.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, talent show, Hamlet Day, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00931ritakuj-90-01-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut

Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: The community of Rankin Inlet holds a talent show at the Community Hall where a variety of performers sing for the public. Charlie Panigoniak is one of the singers.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This

video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: talent show, music, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00930ritakuj-88-20-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Johnny Ajaruaq

Segment 1: The Canadian Army builds a bridge at Meladine River.

Segment 2: Elder Qipaniq from Repulse Bay tells comical stories.

Segment 3: At the Kivalliq (Keewatin) Regional Games in Rankin Inlet the communities compete at a variety of sports and Inuit games.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: comical stories, sports, Inuit games, Canadian Army, bridge, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00929ritakuj-88-inuk>

Program game: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Noah Tiktaq
Interviewer: John Ajaruaq
Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: Communities from all over the NWT were represented at this Territorial Status of Women meeting that took place in Rankin Inlet. They covered many topics including a workshop on self-esteem and managing stress.

Segment 2: The Community of Rankin Inlet fundraises for the Children's Hospital Foundation.

Segment 3: Rankin Inlet mothers and grandmother's trying their best to play hockey.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Status of Women, women issues, self-esteem, stress, Children's Hospital Foundation, fundraising, hockey, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00928ritakuj-92-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Jose Kusugak and Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: Rhoda Karetak talks about the activities held around Christmas when she was young. She talks about traditional activities.

Segment 2: The Rankin Inlet minor hockey players and their parents celebrate by having supper together. Awards are given out. Jordin Tootoo is awarded for the most goals scored.

Segment 3: Elders from Rankin Inlet say their greetings to relatives in other communities.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: hockey, Christmas, traditional activities, greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00927ritakuj-88-19-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: John Ajaruaq

Interviewer: Charlie Panigoniak
Interviewee: Jack Anawak
Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: A cruise ship arrived in Rankin Inlet. Charlie Panigoniak interviews

Jack Anawak who is one of the contacts for the cruise ship. Jack talks about where the tourists come from and what they are doing in communities.

Location: Chesterfield Inlet

Segment 2: The Keewatin Divisional Board of Education met in Chesterfield Inlet. They talk about educational issues. John Ajaruaq interviews board chair, John Tinashlu and Emiline Kowmak about the meeting.

Segment 3: At the Kivalliq Summer Games, youth compete doing the one-foot high kick.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Kivalliq Summer Games, Inuit games, one-foot high kick, cruise ship, Keewatin Board of Education, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00926ritakuj-88-15-inuk>

Program: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut

Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: John Ajaruaq

Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: At the Fishing Derby in Rankin Inlet, the public competes to catch the biggest fish. People also play a variety of games.

Segment 2: Maani Ulujuk School celebrates the end of the school year by having a carnival and rummage sale.

Segment 3: This video shows how Kivalliq Hall is operated. It houses students from the Kivalliq region.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: fishing derby, games, carnival, Kivalliq Hall, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00925riinu-90-07-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Location: Rankin Inlet
Segment 1: The Sikku Sports store opens in Rankin Inlet. Harry Towtongie and Tom Thompson are the owners.

Location: Arviat
Segment 2: The Inuumariit Music Festival in Arviat presents a good lineup of local singers and a number from other communities.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: sports store, hockey, concert, Inuumariit Music Festival, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07027otqaujisaut1980>

Program name: Qaujisaut
Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.
Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Camera: John Tapatai and William Scottie
Host: Janet Tagoona

Segment 1: Janet Tagoona shows how to cook caribou stew.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: caribou stew, cooking, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07024otqaujisaat1996>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Camera: John Tapatai and William Scottie

Host: Janet Tagoona

Segment 1: Janet Tagoona shows how to cook caribou pie. She also shows what cooking utensils are needed for basic cooking.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: caribou pie, cooking utensils, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07023otqaujisaat1990>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Location: Iqaluit

Segment 1: Students from New Brunswick went to Iqaluit on a student exchange.

Segment 2: Leetia teaches how to make tacos using a taco kit from the local store.

Segment 3: High school students perform a variety of skits on stage in Iqaluit, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: skits, cooking, student exchange, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07022otqaujisaat1992>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Location: Iqaluit

Segment 1: The Iqaluit branch of the Legion organizes Remembrance Day activities.

Segment 2: Susan Aglukark sings for the crowd in Iqaluit.

Segment 3: The community of Iqaluit recognizes the local cadets. The opening of Cadet Hall there is shown.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: cadets, Remembrance Day, Legion, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07021otqaujisaat1993>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Segment 1: Pangnirtung and Iqaluit soccer players challenge each other in a soccer tournament.

Location: Iqaluit

Segment 2: Inukshuk High School students show a variety of their research projects at a science fair.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: soccer, science fair, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07020otqaujisaat1994>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Segment 1: Rankin Inlet, Igloolik, Baker Lake and Iqaluit residents say their greetings at Christmas to friends and relatives.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07019otqaujisaout2000>

Program name: Qaujisaout

Qaujisaout (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaout. Qaujisaout taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaout was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaout was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaout was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Baker Lake - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Location: Chesterfield Inlet

Segment 1: In the summer, students from Chesterfield Inlet go on the land to learn about hunting with some hunters.

Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 2: Maureen Pammiuq, a young singer, performs for a crowd in Rankin Inlet. She plays guitar, while she sings gospel.

Location: Baker Lake

Segment 3: The Hamlet of Baker Lake runs a dog team race that the whole community comes out to watch.

Segment 4: Young people square dance at the community hall.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: square dance, dog team race, gospel, music, hunting, seal, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07018otqaujisaout1990>

Program name: Qaujisaout

Qaujisaout (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaout. Qaujisaout taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaout was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaout was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaout was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Letia Ann Komoatuk

Location: Iqaluit

Segment 1: Inukshuk High School students participate in Games Day, competing with each other in a variety of sports and games.

Location: Kimmirut

Segment 2: The Kimmirut Recreation director talks about the Inuit Summer Games that took place in Kimmirut, Nunavut.

Segment 3: Some brief instruction about how to go kayaking is given along with related safety tips.

Location: Iqaluit

Segment 4: Much Music performs for the youth at Inukshuk High School.

Segment 5: This is a music video of Greenland actors performing with singing in the background.

Segment 6: An Elder talks about the parts of a sealskin whip used for dog teams.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: seal skin whip, dog team, music video, Greenlandic actors, kayaking, kayak safety, games, sports, Inuit Summer Games, concert, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07017otqaujisaout2001>

Program name: Qaujisaout

Qaujisaout (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaout. Qaujisaout taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaout was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaout was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaout was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Kaviq Kaluraq

Interviewer: Leo Subgut

Location: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

Segment 1: Students at Maani Ulujuk High School are shown how to take the fat off of the sealskin in the traditional way by an Elder.

Segment 2: Students at Maani Ulujuk High School make a harpoon in the shop.

Location: Baker Lake and area

Segment 3: Students from Baker Lake go on a field trip in the springtime. They enjoy the nice weather by sliding, golfing and doing other sports.

Segment 4: Young people work at a convenience store in Baker Lake, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: convenience store, harpoon, field trip, seal skin, seal fat, golfing, sports, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07016otqaujisaout1995>

Program name: Qaujisaout

Qaujisaout (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaout. Qaujisaout taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaout was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaout was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaout was produced in

Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.
Producer: Mary Shiutiapik - Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Interviewer: Noah Papatsie
Interviewer: Brian Sigurdson
Location: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut
Segment 1: Rankin Inlet high students give interviews about a book they each produced. This was a pilot project by the Nunavut Literacy Council.

Producer: Michael Haqpik
Host: Peter Mannik
Location: Baker Lake, Nunavut
Segment 2: Jason Putumiraqtuq is filmed as he does his summer job. He works with the local police.

Producer: Tom Ava
Location: Igloolik, Nunavut and area
Segment 3: Young people are taken out on a walrus hunt in the summer. They are shown how to butcher a walrus after it is killed.

Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut
Segment 4: Students at Inukshuk High School tell what they would like to see on the Twonie coin. They agreed with the polar bear being on the coin.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: coin, hunting, walrus, butchering, summer job, book production, Nunavut Literacy Council, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07015otqaujisaat>

Program name: Qaujisaat
Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.
Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Location: Iqaluit

Segment 1: The Duke of Edinburgh Awards of Canada are given out to students at Inukshuk High School under the Terry Fox Program. Anne Hanson is the master of ceremonies.

Segment 2: This is a music video with Inuktitut songs in the background.

Segment 3: This is a short video showing people in a cabin getting ready to go polar bear hunting. They are also shown shooting the bear and skinning it.

Location: Iqaluit

Segment 4: Snowmobiles race up a hill.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: racing, snowmobiles, hunting, polar bear, skinning, Duke of Edinburgh Awards of Canada, Terry Fox Program, music video, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07014otqaujisaat1997>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Shirley Qilak

Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: Andrew Alikasuak from Rankin Inlet talks about hunting caribou.

Location: Baker Lake

Segment 2: Baker Lake's Joe Qijuq and Bernie Haqpik play organ.

Location: Igloolik

Segment 3: Students read their stories and give their opinions about life in Inuktitut and English.

Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 4: Students conduct science experiments.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: hunting, caribou, music, student stories, science experiments, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07013otqaujisa1993>

Program name: Qaujisa

Qaujisa (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisa. Qaujisa taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisa was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisa was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisa was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Location: Iqaluit and area

Segment 1: The band, the Barenaked Ladies, visits Iqaluit. They are taken out on the land and shown how to handle a whip. They wear caribou and seal skin clothing and travel by dog team.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Barenaked Ladies, dog team, traditional clothing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07012otqaujisa1995>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Producer: Noah Tiktaq

Location: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

Segment 1: Maani Ulujuk High School students discuss the issue of where the capital of the new territory of Nunavut should be.

Interviewer: Oo Aqpik

Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut

Segment 2: Two young people, Norman Kigutaq from Grise Fiord and Pauline Kayak from Pond Inlet are interviewed about their throat singing and drum dancing.

Interviewer: Joellie Evalu

Location: Igloolik, Nunavut

Segment 3: A young man got lost while going out on the land to look for his father who had been hunting. He talks about the experience of being lost and what he did to survive.

Segment 4: Inuktitut music video.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: capital of Nunavut, music video, survival skills, throat singing, drum dancing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07011otqaujisaat1990>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat.

Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Lisa Ann Kommoaktuk

Segment 1: This is a short documentary about dog teams.

Location: Iqaluit

Segment 2: High School students at the Ukkivik Residence send their greetings to their families at home. Students play volleyball at the residence.

Segment 3: Jim Gregner from the Iqaluit By-Law office talks about the town by-law regarding snowmobiles.

Segment 4: Noah Papatsie talks about taking care of snowmobiles.

Segment 5: This is a music video.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: dog teams, Ukkivik Residence, volleyball, snow mobile by-law, snowmobiles, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, music video

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07010otqaujisaat1991>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Lisa Ann Kommoaktuk

Segment 1: A hidden camera shows a variety of reactions to different situations.

Location: Iqaluit

Segment 2: Mike Gardner is the new “Tuuniq”, the Toonik Tyme mascot.

Segment 3: A variety of activities during Iqaluit’s Toonik Tyme spring celebrations are shown.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: hidden camera, Toonik Tyme, Tuuniq, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07009otqaujisaat1992>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Location: Iqaluit

Segment 1: A hockey tournament is held in Iqaluit.

Segment 2: This is a music video of Iqaluit’s Uvagut Band.

Segment 3: Elder Naqi Ekho talks about her life in the old days before communities were established.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: hockey, early recollections, music video, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07008otqaujisaat1993>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.
Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Noah Papatsie

Segment 1: Some Catholic youth from Nunavut went to Denver, Colorado in the United States to see the Pope.

Location: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

Segment 2: Two youth, Tommy Kavito and Junior Kaludjak from Rankin Inlet talk about their experience of falling in icy waters while hunting.

Location: Igloolik, Nunavut

Segment 3: Iliina Ijiraq talks about the generation gap between elders and youth.

Segment 4: This is a music video of a band from Cambridge Bay, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Catholic Church, Pope, hunting, rescue, music video, generation gap, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07007otqaujisaat1993>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in

Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.
Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Noah Papatsie
Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut

Segment 1: Jokes are played on people using different noises and also by having a person hidden in a big box.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: jokes, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07006otqaujisaat1993>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Noah Papatsie

Location: Baker Lake, Nunavut

Segment 1: This is a home video of people going across open water with their snowmobiles.

Producer: Leo Subgut

Location: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

Segment 2: Students at Kivalliq Hall decorate the Regional Education Residence for the Christmas season. Students give interviews on what they like about living at the residence.

Producer: Julie Ivalu

Location: Igloolik, Nunavut

Segment 3: High school students display and explain the findings from their science projects at a science fair. Youth are also shown attending high school and Nunavut Arctic College. Some talk about encouraging others to stay in school.

Location: Iqaluit and area

Segment 4: A boat takes lumber to a location in a bay of Iqaluit.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: science fair, open water, stay in school, boat, music, Christmas, Kivalliq Hall, lake, snowmobiles, shipping by boat, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07005otqaujisaat1993>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Location: Baker Lake, Nunavut

Segment 1: Elder Mamak Innaktsik talks about her youth.

Location: Igloolik, Nunavut

Segment 2: Juli Ivalu asks high students what they would do if they were the Prime Minister of Canada.

Location: Kimmirut, Nunavut

Segment 3: Youth play a game of golf near a beach.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: golf, elder recollections, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07004otqaujisaat1993>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Location: Baker Lake, Nunavut

Producer: Sandy Iksigak

Segment 1: Baker Lake high school students give their greetings to others during the New Year.

Location: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

Producer: Leo Subgut

Segment 2: Students at Kivalliq Hall are asked what they think about the last school year.

Location: Igloolik , Nunavut

Segment 2: Students in high school in Igloolik are asked what they would like to see for the coming year - 1994.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: high school students, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07003otqaujisaat1994>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat.

Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Napatsie Lyta

Location: Baker Lake, Nunavut

Host: Sandy Iksiraq

Segment 1: Annie Haqpi went to Arviat, Nunavut to learn about singing ajaaja and drum making.

Location: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

Host: Jose Kusugak

Segment 2: Young hockey players prepare to go to Yellowknife and Kugluktuk for a tournament.

Location: Igloolik, Nunavut

Segment 3: This is a presentation on AIDS.

Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut

Segment 4: The military recruitment team holds a Career Day in Iqaluit.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: military, AIDS, hockey, ajaaja, drum making, dancing, music, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07002otqaujisaat1994>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat.

Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Location: Baker Lake, Nunavut

Host: Sandy Iksiraq

Segment 1: Roy Avala from Baker Lake went to the Arctic Winter Games in Yellowknife, NWT to race his dog teams.

Location: Igloolik, Nunavut

Segment 2: This show follows a young man, Sonny Boy, through his daily activities working at the radio and also working with his dogs.

Location: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

Segment 3: Leo Ussak School in Rankin Inlet has a science fair.

Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut

Segment 4: Elders Naqi Ekhp and Malaya Papatsie talk about their childhood.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: elder recollections, science fair, dog team, radio, racing, Arctic Winter Games, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07001otqaujisaat1994>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Location: Baker Lake, Nunavut

Host: Sandy Iksiraq

Segment 1: Square dancing in Baker Lake.

Location: Igloolik, Nunavut

Segment 2: The 1994 Grade 12 graduation ceremony in Igloolik.

Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut

Segment 3: Lucassie Nutaraaluk talks about caribou hunting.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: graduation, square dancing, caribou hunting, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/07000otqaujisaut1994>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Napatsie Lyta

Location: Baker Lake, Nunavut

Host: Sandy Iksiraq

Segment 1: A youth in Baker Lake is shown going to school and to his job site. He is a stock boy at a store.

Location: Igloolik, Nunavut

Segment 2: Young people learn how to square dance.

Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut

Segment 3: Students from different communities gather in Iqaluit, Nunavut to talk about why so many drop out of school.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: square dancing, staying in school, youth employment, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00908riinu-91-20-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak
Location: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

Segment 1: A Greenland band and theatre group perform for the crowd in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Greenland, theatre, acting, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00922ritakuj-05-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut.
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: John Ayaruak
Location: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

Segment 1: Louis Pilakapsi talks about what the newly elected Hamlet Council of Rankin Inlet, Nunavut is planning to do.

Segment 2: Elders committee chairperson, Ollie Ittinuar, talks about the elders group and what their role is in the community.

Segment 3: Participants from Kivalliq communities gather in Chesterfield Inlet to compete with each other during the Inuit Summer Games.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuit Summer Games, sports, elders committee, hamlet council, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00917riinu-90-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak
Location: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

Segment 1: Elders in Rankin Inlet enjoy playing games at Christmas time organized by the Health Centre.

Segment 2: Mariano Aupilarjuk tells stories to students.

Segment 3: Two older ladies, Attuat and Annie Tatty, talk about pregnancy.

Segment 4: Different Elders tell funny stories.

Segment 5: Elder Maninaarluk teaches how to skin a caribou.

Segment 6: Two women Elders teach how to soften caribou and seal skins.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: pregnancy, legend, storytelling, elder games, skinning, caribou skins, seal skins, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00920riinu-91-18-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak
Location: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

Segment 1: Andrew Atagutarluk and Peter Inukpak travelled by snowmobile from Kuuujuaq, Quebec to the Kivalliq Region. They are seen here getting ready to travel North of Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 2: Elder Monica Ujuk tells comical stories about her fishing trip.

Segment 3: Square dancing in Arviat, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This

video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: square dancing, expedition, snowmobile, fishing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00919ritakuj-87-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Noah Tiktaq

Location: Arviat, Nunavut
Segment 1: People compete in a variety of games and sports during the Arviat Summer Games.

Location: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut
Segment 2: Phillip Nukapiak, chair of the Recreation Committee, talks about the activities that they organize for the Hamlet of Rankin's celebrations and special days.

Segment 3: CBC Kivalliq holds a music night for the town of Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 4: A Manitoba theatre group performs a puppet show for the public in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.
The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: puppets, theatre, concert, recreation committee, Inuit games, Inuit sports, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00918ritakuj-93-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: A collection of musicians sing.

Segment 2: Dominic Kasaluak from Rankin Inlet, Nunavut tells comical stories about one of his first trips to southern Canada.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: comical, storytelling, music, singing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00916ritakuj-93-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: A group of people from Clyde River came to Rankin Inlet, Nunavut to talk about how to alter a river so that fish could travel up stream more easily.

Segment 2: Hamlet Day celebrations in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 3: A man, who is deaf and doesn't talk, shows what the sign language hand signs are for certain objects.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: deaf, Inuktitut sign language, hand signs, river, fish spawning, Hamlet Day celebrations, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00915ritakuj-88-24-inuk>

Program: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: People from Rankin Inlet give their Christmas greetings to others.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas, greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00914ritakuj-88-22-inuk>

Program: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Noah Tiktaq

Segment 1: The Canadian Army went to Rankin Inlet, Nunavut to do military exercises. They also do a “show and tell” at the community hall.

Segment 2: Students play soccer at the gym.

Segment 3: A band plays music in Arviat, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, soccer, military exercises, Canadian Army, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00913ritakuj-88-11-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Noah Tiktaq

Segment 1: Board members from Nunavut Tunngavik Inc. and the Kivalliq Inuit Association attend a course on land use.

Segment 2: Students involved with the Maani Ulujuk School science fair do a “show and tell” for the public.

Segment 3: Francis Kaput talks about dog team racing on behalf of the dog team committee.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: dog team, land claim, land use, science fair, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00912ritakuj-88-06-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Noah Tiktaq
Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: The Kivalliq mayors' regional body holds their annual meeting.

Segment 2: Kay Gordon is interviewed about the Glad Tidings Church. She talks about the Bible School program that takes place in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 3: Territorial soccer trials take place in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: soccer, Glad Tidings Church, Bible School, Kivalliq Inuit Association, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00911ritakuj-88-10-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Johnny Ayaruaq

Segment 1: Elder Joe Pattiq tells a very good legend explaining animal behavior.

Segment 2: Atii Corporation, a partner with major Inuit organizations, runs a finance workshop to help prepare for the upcoming Nunavut Territory.

Segment 3: The new arena in Coral Harbour opens and a hockey game is played to celebrate.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: arena, hockey, finance training, Nunavut Territory formation, Atii Corporation, legend, animal behaviour, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00910riinu-90-10-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: This is a documentary about the mining days in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut and where they dumped garbage near the shoreline.

Segment 2: Elder Prime Okalik from Whale Cove, Nunavut talks about hunting and weather.

Segment 3: Elder Monica Adjuk from Whale Cove, Nunavut tells a comical story about something that happened to her.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: comical, storytelling, hunting, weather, traditional knowledge, mine, dump, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00909riinu-91-18-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: Students at Leo Ussak School are recognized and given awards.

Segment 2: A family goes on a fishing trip in the springtime.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: camping, fishing, school awards, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00924riinu-91-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak
Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: A theatre group from Greenland performs for students in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut. They are dressed in traditional outfits and use vocal sounds and sounds effects, but not words.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, Greenland, theatre, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00907riqim-98-inuk>

Program name: Qimaivvik
Qimaivvik was a cultural show produced in Baker Lake or Igloolik, but included segments from all of IBC's centres. Topics included: storytelling, hunting and sewing techniques, legends, language, and other traditional practices such as igloo building, etc.
Producer: Rankin Inlet Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Albert Kimmaliarjuk

Segment 1: Rankin Inlet celebrates Pakalak Tyme. This is the yearly dog team race in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: games, Pakalak Tyme, dog team, racing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00905ritakuj-90-05-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut.

Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut
Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: Some news items for Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

Segment 2: 1990 Arctic Winter Games competitions.

Segment 3: School children participate in a Christmas concert in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 4: This is a short video from the Kivalliq Health Board about the survey that will be done in the region.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Arctic Winter Games, health survey, Christmas concert, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00903ritakuj-93-14-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: A First Nations drummer and band from Alberta came to Rankin Inlet to talk about addictions.

Segment 2: Joe Inukshuk and Paul Pissuk talk about their experience while being lost during a hunting trip.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: throat singing, addictions, drum dancing, First Nations, hunting, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00902ritakuj-90-04-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut
Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: The Canadian military went to Rankin Inlet, Nunavut to do some exercises.

Segment 2: The cartoonist who wrote the Super Shamou comic book explains how he did it.

Segment 3: A Christmas concert In Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Canadian military, military exercises, drumming, Super Shamou, comic book, Christmas, concert, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00901ritakuj-88-17-inuk>

Program: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: John Ayaruak
Interviewer: Marie Komaksiutiksak Michael
Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: This is about the programs the Friendship Centre runs in Rankin Inlet.

Segment 2: Lucien Tarparti talks about his trip with the RCMP to Cape Fullerton near Chesterfield Inlet, Nunavut. He also describes a polar bear attack.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: polar bear, polar bear attack, Friendship Centre, programs, RCMP, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00900ritakuj-92-inuk>

Program: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak
Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: This is about the local radio being moved to a new location.

Segment 2: People in Rankin Inlet celebrate a birthday by making a small boat and racing across the lake.

Segment 3: The Inuit Cultural Institute organizes an Elders meeting about culture and language. The meeting is in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 4: Vincent Nanorluk goes seal hunting.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: seals, hunting, Inuit Cultural Institute, elders, language, culture, local radio, boat race, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01073riinu-03-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Location: Arviat

Segment 1: Dog team races in Arviat, Nunavut.

Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 2: Rankin Inlet residents say hello to relatives.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: dog team, races, greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01072riqimai-07-inuk>

Program name: Qimaivvik

Qimaivvik was a cultural show produced in Baker Lake or Igloolik, but included segments from all of IBC's centres. Topics included: storytelling, hunting and sewing techniques, legends, language, and other traditional practices such as igloo building, etc.

Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Celina Panika

Segment 1: A drum dance in Taloyoak, Nunavut.

Segment 2: John Qilulaq (Killulark) talks about making an emergency shelter out of snow.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: igloo (igluvigaq), snow shelter, drum dancing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01069riinuk-92-23-inuk>

Program name: Inukshuk

Producer: Baker Lake - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Sam Irqilik

Segment 1: Peter Tapatai and other hunters go musk ox hunting.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: musk ox, hunting, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01068riamit-92-4015-inuk>

Program name: Amittumiut

Producer: Igloolik - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Julie Ivalu

Segment 1: Elder Noah Piugattuq talks about safety on the ice.

Segment 2: Children do a variety of activities during the springtime.

Segment 3: This is a short documentary on the uses of the ulu (woman's knife).

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: ulu, woman's knife, snow, ice, children, spring, ice safety, survival skills, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01065riqimai-97-inuk>

Program name: Qimaivvik

Qimaivvik was a cultural show produced in Baker Lake or Igloolik, but included segments from all of IBC's centres. Topics included: storytelling, hunting and sewing techniques, legends, language, and other traditional practices such as igloo building, etc.

Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Tiktaq

Segment 1: Mariano Aupilarjuk talks about making a qammaq (sod house) outside of Rankin Inlet, Nunavut. He is shown making the qammaq with some youth.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: sod house, qammaq, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01061riinu-90-04-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut

Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: Maninarluk from Rankin Inlet, Nunavut hunts caribou.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: caribou, hunting, skinning, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01060riqauji-94-4923-inuk-eng-0>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Segment 1: This is a video was prepared by the Maani Ulujuk High School students from Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 2: Elders in Igloolik teach how to determine the condition of the ice and how to test it with a harpoon.

Segment 3: Two young people from Baker Lake talk about their caribou hunting trips. They thought they saw a mysterious being on the land.

Segment 4: A C5 Galaxy, a huge military cargo plane, came to Iqaluit, Nunavut. The inside of the plane is shown.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: cargo plane, Inuit knowledge, ice, snow, harpoon, high school, hunting, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01059ritakuj-94-33-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: Students go ice fishing with their teacher.

Segment 2: Students in Rankin Inlet show what they can do. Some of them play musical instruments, others sing songs, read in Inuktitut or dance.

Segment 3: Elder Pissuk talks about the weather.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: traditional knowledge, music, singing, reading, weather, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01056riinu-91-22-inuk-eng>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: This video is about E-coli.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: E-coli, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01055riinu-91-12-inuk-eng>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: The Elders of Rankin Inlet play games during Christmas organized by the nursing station.

Segment 2: A Christmas concert in Rankin Inlet.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: concert, Elders, Christmas, games, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01053riinu-91-13-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut

Producer: Rankin Inlet - Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: Elizabeth Okalik teaches the traditional way to tan caribou skins. This is the second video with Elizabeth on tanning.

Segment 2: Hugh and Ruth Tulurialik from Baker Lake sing.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, singing, traditional knowledge, caribou skin, tanning, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01052riinu-91-24-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut

Producer: Rankin Inlet - Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: Joan Attuat and Annie Tatty from Rankin Inlet talk about pregnancy and midwifery.

Segment 2: A family is out on a fishing trip.

Segment 3: A man from Ontario walked to Arviat from Manitoba. He is interviewed by Leo Subgut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, fishing, midwifery, pregnancy, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01051riinu-91-26-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: Lizzie Ittinuar talks about her sewing in her cabin, which is near Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 2: Two Arviat men got lost hunting and so they tell their story.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: sealskins, sewing, hunting, cabin, being lost, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01050riinu-92-4329-inuk-eng>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: The Arviat music festival along with some interviews.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, concert, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01024riinuk-inuk>

Program name: Inukshuk
Producer: Baker Lake - Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Hugh Haqpik

Segment 1: The life story of Henry Ford, who lives in Baker Lake.

Segment 2: Jacob Ikinilik tells his life story.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: carvings, art, music, history, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01023riinuk-93-22-inuk>

Program name: Inukshuk
Producer: Baker Lake - Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Sam Ikilik

Segment 1: This is a short documentary on drumming and styles of drumming.

Segment 2: Silas Seeteenaq from Baker Lake, Nunavut sings his ajaaja song about hunting caribou.

Segment 3: Katurqaq from Repulse Bay, Nunavut talks about an incident that happened while he was seal hunting.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: hunting, caribou, seal, ajaaja, drumming, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01014ritakuj-90-11-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: News program from Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 2: This is a Halloween special showing people telling scary stories. There is also a short, scary video.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Halloween, storytelling, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01013ritakuj-88-21-inuk-eng>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: John Ayaruak

Segment 1: Rankin Inlet's Kisarvik Co-op board members have a public meeting.

Segment 2: The Canadian military conducts some exercises in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 3: Each Kivalliq community sends representatives to compete at the Kivalliq Inuit summer games.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: games, Canadian Military, Arctic Co-ops, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01012ritakuj-88-23-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: John Ayaruak

Segment 1: Newly elected MP, Jack Anawak, talks about what he wants to do while in his new position.

Segment 2: Each Kivalliq community sends representatives to compete at the Kivalliq Inuit summer games.

Segment 3: This is an awareness video about people coming into the communities and looking for donations.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuit sports, soliciting donations, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01011ritakuj-92-45-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: Evo Samgusaaq from Rankin Inlet, Nunavut makes an ice scoop.

Segment 2: Donat Iqulik from Baker Lake, Nunavut talks about his brother, Evo Samgusaaq.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: fishing, ice scoop, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01010ritakuj-92-inuk-eng>

Program name : Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Cecile Sanertanut

Segment 1: The Anglican Church congregation's fundraising committee, which is planning to build a new church, gives their report in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 2: People in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut give their greetings to friends and relatives.

Segment 3: A comedy show (in English) about inuksuks.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: inuksuks, fundraising, Anglican Church, greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01009ritakuj-91-16-inuk-eng>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: The whole video is about a music talent show in Gjoa Haven, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, talent show, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01008ritakuj-88-12-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: John Ayaruak

Segment 1: The Keewatin Chamber of Commerce holds their annual conference in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 2: Elder Joe Pattiq from Rankin Inlet, Nunavut tells a legend.

Segment 3: Students from Leo Ussak School singing ajaaja and drumming.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: legend, drumming, ajaaja, Chamber of Commerce, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01007riqauji-98-724-inuk-eng>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut(To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Jimmy Aupaluk

Segment 1: A short video on dog sledding along with a song on the subject.

Segment 2: The Ajaaja Choir from Leo Ussak Elementary School in Rankin Inlet, sings some songs.

Segment 3: A short video made in Taloyoak about gun safety.

Segment 4: A teachers' conference in Rankin Inlet. This is an interview about classroom management, computers and using the Internet.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: teachers' conference, gun safety, ajaaja, dog team, dog team song, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01005riinu-90-06-inuk-eng>

Program name: Inuusivut

Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: Simon Teenar from Whale Cove talks about the earlier years of his life. He talks about the starvation in his group.

Segment 2: Music Festival in Arviat.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: recollections, music, Arviat Music Festival, starvation, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01003ri-87-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: Walrus hunting in Chesterfield Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 2: Beluga whale hunting in Arviat, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: beluga whale, walrus, hunting, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01002ritakuj-92-4328-inuk-eng>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: Peewee hockey in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 2: The Canadian military arrive in Rankin Inlet to go out on the land with the northern members of the Canadian Rangers.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: hockey, military, Canadian Rangers, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01001ritakuj-92-50-inuk-eng>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: An old timers' hockey tournament in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 2: Spring Carnival at a Rankin Inlet school.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: old timers hockey, Spring Carnival, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01000ritakuj-92-4339-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: People in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut send their Merry Christmas greetings to others and relatives.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00974rivint-93-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Arviat - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak
Camera: Michael Angalik
Interviewer: Bobby Suluk

Segment 1: Joe Qajajuaq Curley talks about his life story.

Segment 2: Eric Anoe talks about Inuit life and the changes that have happened over the years.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: traditional knowledge, recollections, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00972rivint-93-inuk>

Vintage Rankin Inlet production
Producer: Arviat – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: In 1993, two men dig up a summer caribou cache from under the snow near Arviat, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: hunting, caribou meat, cache, pirujaq, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00971rivint-93-inuk>

Vintage Rankin Inlet production
Producer: Arviat – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: A caribou calf fetus with three legs.

Segment 2: Elder Peter Koomak describes the meaning of inukshuks.

Segment 3: Elder Matalie Uuniq talks about her life.

Segment 4: An Arviat Elder talks about ice formation.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: ice formation, traditional knowledge, inukshuk, caribou anomaly, recollections, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00970ritakuj-92-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: Jose Kusugak prepares an information package about the vote for the division of Nunavut and N.W.T. He also talks about the land claims agreement and summarizes it.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: land claims, land referendum, division of the NWT, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00968ritakuj-92-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: A trip from Aklavik to Kimmirut by northern members of the Canadian Rangers. Simeonie Natsiq was on the trip.

Segment 2: Lorne Kusugak talks about his collection of pins.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: pins, explorer, Canadian Rangers, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00967ritakuj-93-4349-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: George Arluk, a well-known carver, is shown carving.

Segment 2: Jose Kusugak's family go to gather mussels.

Segment 3: Two ladies in Arviat cut up a seal.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: butchering seal, mussels, carving, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00966ritakuj-93-22-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: Nutarakuluk Qasaluq talks about traditional medicine.

Segment 2: Nanorluk and Uqajuittuq from Rankin Inlet, Nunavut go ice fishing.

Segment 3: Dog team races with music in the background.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for

your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: dog team, dog team racing, music, ice fishing, traditional medicine, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00965ri-87-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: Children slide down a hill.

Segment 2: Students in Leo Ussak School in Rankin Inlet have a carnival.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: carnival, sliding, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00964ritakuj-93-4344-inuk-eng>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: A gospel music festival in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 2: A seniors' home in Yellowknife, Nunavut.

Segment 3: The Kitikmeot boarding home in Yellowknife, where patients from the Kitikmeot region stay when they go for health care.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: gospel, music, seniors' home, patient boarding home, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00963ritakuj-91-19-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: The Catholic Church young people's group gather to sing and play games.

Segment 2: Dominic Qasaluaq talks about traditional medicines for those who are sick.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: traditional medicine, gospel, games, Nunavut Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00962riinu-92-4369-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: Charlotte St. John from Arviat, Nunavut spins wool out of muskox fur / qivviut.

Segment 2: The Arviat Music Festival.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, Arviat Music Festival, spinning, qivviut, muskox, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00961ritakuj-93-4346-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut

Producer: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: Two men from Clyde River went to Rankin Inlet, Nunavut to talk about river construction. This is to help the char going up or down the river.

Segment 2: Elder Phillip Pissuk talks about snow and igloo building.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: igloo, igluvigaq, snow, char, river construction, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00960riinu-16-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: An elder from Whale Cove talks about his hunting trip.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: hunting, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00959riinu-90-03-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: Catherine Pilakapsi from Rankin Inlet, Nunavut talks about her fish hook creations.

Segment 2: An Elder talks about his caribou hunting.

Segment 3: Dominic Qasaluak talks about his first experience traveling down south.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: caribou, fishing, fish hooks, hunting, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00958riinu-90-11-inuk-eng>

Program: Inuusivut

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: The Anglican choir sings Christmas songs.

Segment 2: Saumik, a hunter, talks about his experience being lost while hunting. The community of Rankin Inlet had a potluck for him when he was found.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: choir, music, survival skills, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00957ritakuj-93-4342-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Charlie Panigoniak and Jose Kusugak

Segment 1: A father and son hunt a beluga whale and butcher it.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: beluga whale, hunting, butchering, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00956ri-87-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: People fish and camp near Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 2: Keewatin CBC radio celebrates its 7th anniversary in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: fishing, camping, CBC radio, celebration, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00955ritakuj-93-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: Men go hunting in a canoe in Arviat, Nunavut.

Segment 2: The Arviat Music Festival.

Segment 3: A bannock eating contest.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, Arviat Music Festival, bannock, accordion, fish, seal, hunting, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00954ritakuj-92-4335-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: Two brothers, Guy Kakianiut from Kugaaruk and Mariano Aupilarjuk from Repulse Bay share recollections about when they were young and tell their life stories.

Segment 2: Simionie Aqpik from Kimmirut is interviewed about the Inuit language (Inuktitut) and the workshop he is attending in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 3: Emil Immaroitok from Igloodik talks about his Inuktitut dictionary.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: recollections, language, Inuktitut, dictionary, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00953ritakuj-93-4351-inuk - watch>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: Gjoa Haven dances are shown and a band sings to the crowd. There is also drumming and ajaaja singing.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: ajaaja, drumming, dancing, singing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00952ritakuj-90-06-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: Rankin Inlet news.

Segment 2: Junior Rangers groups gather in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut to compete with each other.

Segment 3: The Kivalliq Regional Inuit Association holds a meeting in Rankin Inlet to discuss a variety of issues affecting Inuit.

Segment 4: Simioni Sammuk, a special constable for the police force, talks about his job.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: special constable, Kivalliq Inuit Association, junior rangers, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00951riqauji-97-inuk-eng>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Albert Kimmaliarjuk

Segment 1: A regional girls' volleyball tournament in Taloyoak, Nunavut.

Segment 2: Albert approaches unsuspecting people and asks them to answer a variety of questions on the spot.

Segment 3: Simona Aliyak explains each month in Inuktitut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuktitut, language, months, volleyball, sports, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00950riqauji-96-01-inuk-eng>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Albert Kimmaliarjuk

Segment 1: The Arviat Music Festival.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, Arviat Music Festival, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01048ri-qauji-99-715-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Naomi Atagujuk

Segment 1: This is a short documentary about Jordin and Terence Tootoo.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This

video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: hockey, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01047ri-qauji-97-266-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Albert Kimmaliarjuk

Segment 1: Elder Alvin Qanak talks about the different shapes of inukshuks that are on the land and what the shapes mean.

Segment 2: Children in Baker Lake, Nunavut make boats out of wood.

Segment 3: A music video made in Iqaluit.

Segment 4: Mark Ijangiaq from Igloolik, Nunavut talks about igloo (igluvigaq) building.

Segment 5: Inuit games in Taloyak, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuit games, igloo building, igluvigaq, music, inukshuk, boats, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01045ri-takuj-92-inuk-eng>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Jose Kusugak

Segment 1: Jose Kusugak talks about Arctic Co-ops and he promotes the Co-op store in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut. There is a report from the annual general meeting that was held in Winnipeg with the Arctic Co-ops' members.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Arctic Co-op, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01042ri-takuj-91-inuk-eng>

Program: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: Hamlet Days in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut. There is an airplane show put on by the military. Skidoo racing is also shown.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: dog team, Hamlet Days, military, airplane, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01041ri-takuj-92-inuk-eng>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Cecile Sanertanut

Segment 1: Rankin Inlet's regional high school students graduate. Parents from the surrounding communities come in to celebrate with the community.

Segment 2: Rankin Inlet residents clean up the town.

Segment 3: Simon Twiyee and Henry Ittigaituq build an igloo (igluvigaq) for show and tell in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut. Elder Monica Ugjuk talks about how to set up the inside of the igloo using moss.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: graduation, community clean up, igloo, igluvigaq, moss, graduate, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01040ri-takuj-90-09-inuk-eng>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: A scientist comes to Rankin Inlet, Nunavut to test the mussels for toxins.

Segment 2: Young people go camping with their teacher outside Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 3: There is a Terry Fox Run in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 4: Philip Nukapiak tells a comical story about the time he was working for the RCMP in Iqaluit, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Terry Fox Run, scientist, toxin, mussels, camping, RCMP, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01039ri-takuj-88-07-inuk-eng>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: John Ayaruak

Segment 1: Chesterfield Inlet, Nunavut hosts the Regional Inuit Summer Games. Each community in the Keewatin sends representatives to compete in the games. There is also a traditional clothing fashion show.

Segment 2: Mariano Aupilarjuk talks about seal hunting and the tools used for it.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuit Summer Games, traditional clothing, fashion show, seal hunting, traditional tools, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01037ri-takuj-92-35-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: Elders demonstrate some of their traditional knowledge at Cultural Day in Rankin Inlet. Lizzie Ittinuar explains how to prepare sealskins for use in making clothing. Mariano Aupilarjuk tells a legend about a grizzly and a man.

Segment 2: Mika Lightstone, coordinator of the Cultural Day, explains what they did during the day.

Segment 3: Joe Natta made the inuksuk monument in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 4: Alponse Naukatsik talks about how the community of Chesterfield Inlet, Nunavut began.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: inukshuk, monument, legend, traditional knowledge, traditional clothing, seal skin, recollections, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01036ri-takuj-88-18-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Johnny Ayaruak

Segment 1: Lucien Taparti talks about being attacked by a polar bear and how it was in the hospital.

Segment 2: Kivalliq Inuit Summer Games in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: sports, Inuit games, polar bear, hospital, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01035ri-takuj-91-32-inuk-eng>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: Children and adults in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut dress up for Halloween.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Halloween, costumes, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01034ri-takuj-88-14-inuk-eng>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Noah Tiktaq

Segment 1: John Ayaruak interviews Paul Quassa about his trip to Chesterfield Inlet, Nunavut. He also talks about land use for Inuit.

Segment 2: The Keewatin Regional High School students graduate. The students are from communities around the Keewatin Region.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: high school, graduation, land use, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01032ri-takuj-89-03-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: Mayor Lavinia Brown talks about the damage that has been done by the mining industry in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 2: The opening of the Red Top convenience store in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 3: Christmas greetings from people in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: mining, environmental damage, store opening, Christmas, greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01031ri-takuj-90-07-inuk-eng>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut.
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: Regional Keewatin Mayors meet in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut to discuss suicide. Members of the NWT Legislative Assembly have been invited to the meeting.

Segment 2: The community of Rankin Inlet celebrates its 14th Hamlet Day. Community members play games and build igloos (igluvigaaq).

Segment 3: Elder ladies play hockey. This is quite comical because the ladies have never skated before.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: square dancing, music, Hamlet Day, Inuit games, suicide, mayors, NWT Legislative Assembly, skating, igloo building, igluvigaq, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01030ri-takuj-91-inuk-eng>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: Hamlet Days in Rankin Inlet. This includes people watching dog team races, bannock and tea making and an igloo-building contest.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: dog team, races, Hamlet Days, igloo building, igluvigaq, bannock, tea, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01028ri-takuj-87-02-inuk-eng>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Noah Tiktaq

Segment 1: Pissuk teaches how to make a harness for a dog team. He shows different types of dog harnesses.

Segment 2: The Inuit Summer Games take place in Chesterfield Inlet, Nunavut. Various communities compete with each other.

Segment 3: Arviat Music Festival.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuit Summer Games, Arviat Music Festival, dog team, harness, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01027ri-takuj-90-14-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Leo Subgut

Segment 1: Rankin Inlet residents send their greetings to others during the Christmas holidays.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas, greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01025ritakuj-91-17-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: Rankin Inlet's Christmas activities including a feast and games at the community hall.

Segment 2: Dog team racing during Christmas in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: snow sculpture, Inuit games, feast, dog team racing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00341iqkip-93-inuk>

Program name: Kippinguijautiit

Kippinguijautiit (Things to Pass Time By): This program entertains the audience with funny and interesting stories on traditional and contemporary Inuit way of life. Kippinguijautiit features northern musical talent and coverage of games and special events. Kippinguijautiit was the most popular Inuktitut language program from the audience survey conducted in 1992. Kippinguijautiit is a half-hour program for the 16 to 60 year old age group. Kippinguijautiit was produced and packaged in Iqaluit with segments provided by our other production centres.

1985 – 2009 approx.

Producer: Iqaluit– Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Rebecca Anaviapik- Soucie

Segment 1: Inuit Broadcasting Corporation staff took a workshop on making short films. This shows the product of the course they took.

Segment 2: The Justice Committees from the communities came to Iqaluit, Nunavut for a workshop. Killuqisaq from Pond Inlet, Nunavut talks about what he thinks would help a person heal.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: healing, filmmaking, Justice Committees, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00340iqami-92-inuk>

Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Julie Ivalu

Segment 1: The Drug and Alcohol Committee organizes games and a talent show for the town of Igloolik.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, Drug and Alcohol Committee, talent show, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00339iqgau-94-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

This video is not very clear.

Segment 1: This is a program from Cambridge Bay on their short series “spice of life”.

Segment 2: A short video made by high school students.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: High School students, video series, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/01037ri-takuj-92-35-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Jane Flaherty

Segment 1: This is a snowmobile trip outside of Iqaluit to hunt caribou.

Segment 2: The military visit Iqaluit. They are seen getting ready to go out on the land. Local hunters teach them land survival skills.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: military, caribou, hunting, survival skills, snowmobile, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00336iqbak-93-inuk>

Program name: Takuyaksat

Takuyaksat was a Baker Lake production involving cultural activities, storytelling, hunting, sewing, and legends.

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Jean Uqayuittuq

Interviewer: Mike Gibbons

Segment 1: Olive Mamak Innakatsik talks about traditional games and beauty ornaments for women.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuit games, Inuit traditional knowledge, women's ornaments, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00335iqbak-92-06-inuk>

Program name: Inukshuk

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Sam Irqilik

Segment 1: Ben Marriq and Jeremy Irqilik set nets under the ice in winter. This also shows some young people going to the river to spear fish.

Segment 2: Elder Moses Nagjugalik talks about the preparation of caribou meat.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: caribou, meat preparation, fishing, nets, fish spear, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00332iqinu-92-30-inuk>

Program name: Inukshuk

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: This is a Christmas concert at Rankin Inlet's Leo Ussak School.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas, concert, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00331iqbak-93-inuk>

Program name: Inukshuk

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Jean Nukik

Segment 1: Simon Quinagnaq from Baker Lake teaches how to skin and clean a fox.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: skinning, fox skin, traditional knowledge, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00330iqinu-92-31-inuk>

Program name: Inukshuk
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: Charlie Panigoniak interviews Mariano Aupilarjuk about shamans.

Segment 2: After 70 years, the bones of some Inuit are brought back to Repulse Bay for burial. The British took the bones from Arctic Bay, Pond Inlet, Nauyasat and Coral Harbour for scientific reasons.

Segment 3: Matina Anoe is a cultural instructor at the school in Arviat, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: skeleton, bones, repatriation, burial, shamanism, traditional knowledge, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00324iqkip-88-inuk>

Program name: Kippinguijautiit
Kippinguijautiit (Things to Pass Time By): This program entertains the audience with funny and interesting stories on traditional and contemporary Inuit way of life. Kippinguijautiit features northern musical talent and coverage of games and special events. Kippinguijautiit was the most popular Inuktitut language program from the audience survey conducted in 1992. Kippinguijautiit is a half-hour program for the 16 to 60 year old age group. Kippinguijautiit was produced and packaged in Iqaluit with segments provided by our other production centres. 1985 – 2009 approx.
Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Rebecca Anaviapik- Soucie

Segment 1: Barbara Frum came to Iqaluit for the International Women's Day celebrations. A variety of women perform for the audience by singing and doing skits.

Segment 2: Celestino Erkidjuk talks about the early years when the ship came into Chesterfield Inlet, Nunavut.

Segment 3: Bloopers from Inuit Broadcasting filming.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This

video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: International Women's Day, ship, recollections, bloopers, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00323iqqau-96-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Oo Aqpiq

Segment 1: Rankin Inlet and Igloolik people saying Merry Christmas to friends and relatives.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas, greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00322iqinu-92-inuk>

Program name: Inukshuk

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Brenda Qijuk

Segment 1: Inumarijirijit (Inumarilirijit?) sponsored this short documentary about Inuit drumming.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for

your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuit drumming, drums, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00321iqbak-93-inuk>

Program name: Inuksuk
Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Peter Tapatai

Segment 1: Participants from the Keewatin communities compete at the Kivalliq Inuit Games in Baker Lake.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuit games, Kivalliq Inuit Games, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00320iqinu-92-32-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: Joe Mannik from Arviat talks about his family and where he grew up. He also shows how traditional food (mainly caribou meat) and skins are prepared.

Segment 2: The older ladies of Arviat demonstrate a variety of traditional games that were played when they were children. The ladies names are Meg Alikammiaaraq Kuksuk, Elizabeth Nutaraaluk Aulajut and Annie Sewoee.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuit games, caribou, traditional knowledge, children's traditional games, meat preparation, skin preparation, recollections, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00319iqgau-94-inuk>

Program name: Kippinguijautiit

Kippinguijautiit (Things to Pass Time By) entertains the audience with funny and interesting stories on traditional and contemporary Inuit way of life.

Kippinguijautiit features northern musical talent and coverage of games and special events. Kippinguijautiit was the most popular Inuktitut language program from the audience survey conducted in 1992. Kippinguijautiit is a half-hour program for the 16 to 60 year old age group. Kippinguijautiit was produced and packaged in Iqaluit with segments provided by our other production centres.

1985 – 2009 approx.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Rebecca Anaviapik-Soucie

Segment 1: Nakasuk students from Iqaluit are shown at a Christmas concert.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas concert, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00317igtakuy-93-inuk>

Program name: Takuyaksat

Takuyaksat was a Baker Lake production involving cultural activities, storytelling, hunting, sewing, and legends.

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Peter Tapatai

Segment 1: John Tugak talks about the polar bear attack that happened to him while he was camping. He saved himself and his wife from the bear attack during the night.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: polar bear attack, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00316iqkip-92-inuk>

Program name: Kippinguijautiit

Kippinguijautiit (Things to Pass Time By) entertains the audience with funny and interesting stories on traditional and contemporary Inuit way of life.

Kippinguijautiit features northern musical talent and coverage of games and special events. Kippinguijautiit was the most popular Inuktitut language program from the audience survey conducted in 1992. Kippinguijautiit is a half-hour program for the 16 to 60 year old age group. Kippinguijautiit was produced and packaged in Iqaluit with segments provided by our other production centres. 1985 – 2009 approx.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Rebecca Anaviapik-Soucie

Segment 1: This is about Toonik Tyme in Iqaluit. It shows all the games that are played during this time of celebrations.

Segment 2: This is a short documentary about Inuit foods. It gives a comparison between meat prepared traditionally and meat prepared with spices available in today's world.

Segment 3: Music video.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, Inuit food, Toonik Tyme, games, concert, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00314igtakuy-93-inuk>

Uqquaq

Program name: Takuyaksat

Takuyaksat was a Baker Lake production involving cultural activities, storytelling, hunting, sewing, and legends.

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Peter Tapatai

Segment 1: In 1970, Elder James Ikpagaq from Baker Lake traveled to Yellowknife, N.W.T. He travelled with a group of Inuit and non-Aboriginals.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: land travel, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00312iqbak-92-inuk>

Program name: Unnukkut

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Peter Tapatai

Segment 1: William Noah from Baker Lake talks about the new arts building that is being built in Baker Lake.

Segment 2: Esa Taraq from Baker Lake tells stories about when she was young.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: art, gallery, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00311iginu-91-23-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: Mikitok Bruce, an elder from Coral Harbour, talks about walrus hunting and gives details about walrus behaviour.

Segment 2: Simon Sigariaq (Sijjariaq) sings with a band at a concert.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for

your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: walrus, hunting, concert, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00310iginu-92-29-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: Mariano Aupilardjuk talks about survival skills. He also gives a lot of information on the formation of the land. He shares good survival techniques concerning what to do when a person is lost.

Segment 2: The Elder's Christmas party in Rankin Inlet. They play all kinds of games.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, survival skills, snow, land formation, games, elders, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00308iggau-93-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Segment 1: Debbie Webster, a student from Baker Lake, talks about archaeology and what she found on the land.

Segment 2: This is a news clip from Rankin Inlet students.

Segment 3: This is a short clip about the graduation in Igloolik.

Segment 4: One of the youth in Iqaluit talks about his sea-doo.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: sea-doo, archaeology, graduation, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00306iqami-93-inuk>

Program name: Amitturmiut

Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: George Qulaut

Segment 1: Emil Imaruittuq from Igloolik talks about a cultural camp he is leading. He talks about why a cultural camp is needed.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: cultural camp, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00305iqami-93-inuk>

Program name: Amitturmiut

Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Julie Ivalu

Segment 1: This video recalls a visit of some Inuit as part of an Indigenous delegation to London, England in 1988. It includes a visit to a zoo and talks about the Living Arctic Inuit exhibit and sealskin issues. Elisapee Davidee conducts interviews with a number of Inuit working at and/or organizing the exhibit. An Inuk man makes a small qamutiik (sled). Footage of Greenland including fishing is shown. Speeches are given at the British Museum of Mankind by Canadian Indigenous leaders and others.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: animal rights, London (England), Inuit cultural exhibit, Living Arctic exhibit, Alaska, Greenland, fishing, subsistence hunting, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00303iqtakuy-97-inuk>

Program name: Takuyaksat

Takuyaksat was a Baker Lake production involving cultural activities, storytelling, hunting, sewing, and legends.

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Semi Nukiruaq

Segment 1: This is a 1992 update on the process and timelines for the new Government of Nunavut. It's an information package on what to expect, including the funding. There is also information about the boundary for the new Territory. John Amagoalik from the Inuit Committee on Constitutional Issues talks about the significance of Nunavut.

Segment 2: Marion Pattunguyak, an elder woman from Baker Lake, recovers cached caribou meat. Using an ulu, she prepares it for drying on the rocks demonstrating how it is done. She then gathers the dry meat (nipku) packing it in a caribou skin for transport. She also gathers and carries brush from the tundra.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: cache, caribou meat, drying meat, nipku, Nunavut boundary, referendum, Inuit Committee on Constitutional Issues, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00302iqbak-92-02-inuk>

Program name: Unnukkut

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Peter Tapatai

Segment 1: Joan Qiluulaq (Killulark), a Community Health Representative (CHR) in Baker Lake, talks about how important it is for women to have medical checkups annually, including a pap smear test. They also have to be screened for breast cancer.

Segment 2: William Iksirraq is a youth who does imitations and impersonations. He makes sound effects such as a fire engine and bird whistles.

Segment 3: Square dancing with live accompaniment, and pair jigging.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: impersonator, Pap smear, breast cancer screening, Community Health Representative, CHR, square dancing, jigging, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00301igkip-95-inuk>

Program name: Kippinguijautiit

Kippinguijautiit (Things to Pass Time By): This program entertains the audience with funny and interesting stories on traditional and contemporary Inuit way of life. Kippinguijautiit features northern musical talent and coverage of games and special events. Kippinguijautiit was the most popular Inuktitut language program from the audience survey conducted in 1992. Kippinguijautiit is a half-hour program for the 16 to 60 year old age group. Kippinguijautiit was produced and packaged in Iqaluit with segments provided by our other production centres. 1985 – 2009 approx.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Rebecca Anaviapik-Soucie

Segment 1: Evaluarjuk Saumik tells comical stories about things that happened to her.

Segment 2: A Gjoa Haven band singing to the crowd.

Segment 3: Canada Day in Iqaluit. This shows how Iqaluit celebrates.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Canada Day, music, concert, comical stories, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00300iginu-91-12-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: This is the annual Christmas party that the Elders had in Rankin Inlet where they played games.

Segment 2: Students' Christmas concert in Rankin Inlet.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas, elders, games, concert, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00296iqqau-91-09-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Segment 1: This is a short documentary about drug abuse.

Segment 2: Men play volleyball.

Segment 3: Some small businesses in Iqaluit, Nunavut.

Segment 4: Cecilia Irkijut (Erkidjuk) is an addictions counsellor. She talks about the programs at her workplace.

Segment 5: Footage around Iqaluit in winter.

Segment 6: Youth give messages about alcohol and drugs.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: video rental, drug abuse, alcohol, addictions counselling, volleyball, Nunavut, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00294iqinu-91-17-inuk>

Program name: Inuusivut

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Emily Karetak

Segment 1: This is a video showing families getting ready for spring camping. Each person is asked what he or she is doing during this season.

Segment 2: This video is about people enjoying life in the summer time in Arviat, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: summer games, spring camping, Nunavut, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00293iqbak-93-inuk>

Program name: Inukshuk

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Sam Itkilik

Segment 1: Two Baker Lake men, hunting, skinning and butchering caribou.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for

your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: caribou, hunting, skinning, meat preparation, Nunavut, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00290ignun-88-inuk>

Program name: Nunatinni

Nunattinni (In My Home) was an Inuit cultural program.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut

Host: Nipisha Bracken

Segment 1: Akeeshuk Joamie from Apex (Iqaluit) makes a house out of scraps he collected. Alicee Joamie, his wife, is also interviewed.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: home ownership, building materials, Nunavut, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00289iqgau-96-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut.

Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centers.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Segment 1: The grade 12 students graduate in Pangnirtung, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for

your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: graduation, Nunavut, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00662ignuna-inuk>

Producer: Pond Inlet – PIC-TV

Segment 1: This is a special video from Pond Inlet showing three men carving and making tools. They also talk about the tools and the carvings they are making. A stick and bone game (ajagaq) is also demonstrated.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: carving, traditional tools, bone game, ajagaq, Nunavut, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00659ignuna-inuk>

Producer: Nunatsiakmiut Community Television Society / Nunatsiakmiut Film Society was launched in Frobisher Bay (Iqaluit) in 1975. This was the earliest Inuit filmmaking group in the Eastern Arctic. Nunatsiakmiut means 'People From the Beautiful Land.'

Segment 1: This is an interview about the Iqaluit daycare with Marie Eil. The daycare program is explained well.

Segment 2: Three Elders play with seal flipper bones and make stories.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: seal flipper game, daycare, Nunavut, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00640iqami-91-inuk>

Program name: Amitturmiut
Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: In 1990, Elders from Kugaaruk, Nunavut tell stories about their traditional life.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: traditional life, hunting, Nunavut, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00369iq-89-inuk>

Program name: Kippinguijautiit
Kippinguijautiit (Things to Pass Time By): This program entertains the audience with funny and interesting stories on traditional and contemporary Inuit way of life. Kippinguijautiit features northern musical talent and coverage of games and special events. Kippinguijautiit was the most popular Inuktitut language program from the audience survey conducted in 1992. Kippinguijautiit is a half-hour program for the 16 to 60 year old age group. Kippinguijautiit was produced and packaged in Iqaluit with segments provided by our other production centers. 1985 – 2009 approx.
Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Rebecca Anaviapik-Soucie

Segment 1: An environmental activist and actor from Greenland dramatizes taking care of the environment.

Segment 2: Alicee Joamie from Apex (Iqaluit) talks about her plants.

Segment 3: A nine-year-old singing in Greenland. She created her own songs.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: plants, drama, environment, Greenland, songs, Nunavut, Canadian Inuit, IBC

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00368iqcam-86-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Location: Cambridge Bay, Nunavut
Host: Ada Todd

Segment 1: In 1986, a children's entertainer from the South entertains the public in Cambridge Bay. He is one of the actors from the children's show, Sesame Street.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Sesame Street, entertainment, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00367iqcam-87-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Location: Holman Island, Nunavut
Host: James Kavana

Segment 1: Holman Island celebrates the arrival of eider ducks in 1987. Performers drum dance and do other activities to entertain the community.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: drum dancing, eider ducks, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00366iqcam-86-23-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Location: Cambridge Bay, Nunavut
Host: Ada Todd

Segment 1: The 1986 Christmas concert in Cambridge Bay.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas, concert, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00365iqkip-87-inuk>

Program name: Kippinguijautiit

Kippinguijautiit (Things to Pass Time By): This program entertains the audience with funny and interesting stories on traditional and contemporary Inuit way of life. Kippinguijautiit features northern musical talent and coverage of games and special events. Kippinguijautiit was the most popular Inuktitut language program from the audience survey conducted in 1992. Kippinguijautiit is a half-hour program for the 16 to 60 year old age group. Kippinguijautiit was produced and packaged in Iqaluit with segments provided by our other production centres. 1985 – 2009 approx.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Location: Iqaluit

Host: Rebecca Anaviapik- Soucie

Segment 1: In 1987, some elders in Iqaluit dress up for Halloween.

Segment 2: Circus entertainers from Quebec (possibly early Cirque du Soleil) perform for the Iqaluit community.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: circus, comedy, elders, Halloween, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00364ignun-87-inuk>

Program name: Nunatinni

Nunattinni (In My Home) was an Inuit cultural program.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut

Host: Nipisha Bracken

Segment 1: This was a 1987 Christmas special from Iqaluit showing people at the community hall playing games. The St. Jude's Anglican choir also sings Christmas carols. Iqaluit residents and patients at the hospital give Holiday greetings to family and friends.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas, games, choir, Christmas greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00362iqigl-96-inuk>

Program name: Igliniit
Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut
Host: Leetia Ineak

Segment 1: In 1990, the Hunter and Trappers Association in Iqaluit has a meeting about the polar bear quota. An individual is also interviewed about the quota.

Segment 2: Women in Iqaluit (including a doctor from the hospital) gathered together to watch the Pauktuutit Inuit Women's Association video on Inuit midwifery. They discuss concerns regarding birthing. Rebecca Veevee is interviewed about midwives and doctors in Iqaluit.

Segment 3: At the Iqaluit museum, Lorne Valcent (sp?) from Vancouver talks about carvers' art pieces on display. He talks about other carvings from the past using photographs.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: art, carving, birthing centre, midwives, midwifery, Pauktuutit Inuit Women's Association, Hunter and Trappers Association, polar bear quota, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00361iqinu-93-inuk>

Program name: Inukshuk
Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Location: Baker Lake, Nunavut
Host: Sam Itkilik

Segment 1: In 1993, Jacob Ikinilik talks about how to skin a caribou properly for making clothing.

Segment 2: A woman sings a powerful ajaaja song about the status of woman in her day where she notes that they were (sometimes) treated as another female dog.

Segment 3: Barnabus Pirjuaq talks about how the environment was kept clean for the caribou.

Segment 4: Vintage Baker Lake footage showing an elder women singing ajaaja to an elder man's drum dancing.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: ajaaja, skinning, hunting, caribou, environment, (early) status of Inuit women, drum dancing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00360iquka-90-inuk>

Program name: Uqausiksat
Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Sarah Arnatsiaq

Segment 1: In 1990, a variety of youth are interviewed on different issues that they are involved with. The host mainly focuses on the gap between the elders and youth.

Segment 2: A video of the country band, The Black Donnellys, shows them performing on the tundra and at the Iqaluit Elks Lodge.

Segment 3: A public service announcement about the environment and cleaning up garbage.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: elders, youth issues, generation gap, concert, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00359iqigl-inuk>

Program name: Igliniit
Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut
Host: Leetia Ineak

Segment 1: Leetia interviews a member of the Hunters and Trappers Association about the polar bear quotas.

Segment 2: This video includes a variety of outdoor clips of dog sledding and polar bear and caribou hunting, etc. with accordion music in the background.

Segment 3: The video ends with footage of women weaving tapestries at the Pangnirtung weave shop with music in the background. Some completed tapestries are shown.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: polar bear quotas, dog sledding, hunting, caribou, music, weaving, tapestries, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00358iquka-89-inuk>

Program name: Uqausiksat
Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut
Host/Interviewer: Sarah Arnatsiaq

Segment 1: In 1989, Meeka Nakashuk, the manager of the Housing Association in Iqaluit, talks about the allocation of housing and other housing issues.

Segment 2: Leah Inutiq, the manager of Iqaluit's Sunakkutaangit Museum, talks about the programs that the museum offers.

Segment 3: Rebecca Degrasse talks about Pride, an organization that helps with addictions and is against the use of alcohol and drugs.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: addictions, alcohol, drugs, PRIDE, museum, artifacts, Iqaluit Housing Association, housing allocations, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00971rivint-93-inuk>

Vintage Rankin Inlet production
Producer: Arviat – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: A caribou calf fetus with three legs.

Segment 2: Elder Peter Koomak describes the meaning of inukshuks.

Segment 3: Elder Matalie Uuniq talks about her life.

Segment 4: An Arviat Elder talks about ice formation.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Arctic, Canadian Inuit, caribou anomaly, IBC, ice formation, inuit broadcasting corporation, Inukshuk, Nunavut, recollections, traditional knowledge

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00355iq-93-inuk1>

Program name: Igliniit
Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut
Host: Noah Papatsie

Segment 1: This 1993 video shows narwhals at the floe edge. Their breathing is audible. Leetia Ineak speaks with a caller on the phone about the whales. There is also underwater footage of them.

Segment 2: Kevin Locke, a Native American from South Dakota and member of the Bahá'í community, demonstrates the Hoop Dance (using hula hoops) to a crowd as part of the Spirit North gathering in 1986 in Frobisher Bay. A circle dance follows.

Segment 3: Various hunting footage on the water and land with background music.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: narwhals, Bahá'í, Spirit North, Hoop Dance, Native American, hunting, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00354iqami-92-inuk>

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut

Segment 1: This is a video of the Inuit Broadcasting Corporation's 10th anniversary celebrations of IBC's first broadcast (1982-1992). The festivities were broadcast on TVNC (Television Northern Canada). It includes footage and narration gathered by filmmaking students. A community feast and concert were included in the festivities. There was a huge cake on a small qamutik (sled). Various awards were given to IBC staff.

Segment 2: At a small conference on the Inuit (Inuktitut) language, a few elders discuss the language.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: elders, language, IBC 10th anniversary, concert, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00353iq-92-inuk>

Nunavut Annirijavut
Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Location: Igloolik, Nunavut

Segment 1: Elizabeth Nutarakittuq talks about traditional Christmas games and what it was like in a smaller community during her younger years. Some old footage is included. Other women also share recollections of their experiences during Christmas.

Segment 2: In 1991, Igloolik celebrates Christmas by holding games and square dancing to live music.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas, nomadic life, games, square dancing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00351iqcam-88-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Location: Cambridge Bay, Nunavut

Segment 1: This 1988 video is about the history of the steel radar pole that was built by the Hudson's Bay Company in the early 1960s in Cambridge Bay. Other old buildings that were built around the same time are also shown, along with old photos of construction and people.

Segment 2: In 1988, Inuit Tapirisat of Canada meets in Cambridge Bay to discuss Inuit concerns. Each region gives a report from their organization.

Segment 3: Divers prepare to explore the old ship that sunk in the early years near Cambridge Bay. It is partially visible.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: ship wreck, Inuit Tapirisat of Canada, Hudson's Bay Company, radar, historical photographs, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00350iqcam-87-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Location: Cambridge Bay, Nunavut
Host: James Kavana

Segment 1: This is a short 1987 documentary about the Holman Art Shop in Holman Island (Ulukhaktok). Agnes Nanogak shows her prints and talks about each drawing. Stencil artist, Mary Havaktot (sp?) demonstrates her print technique. The shop manager talks about the art techniques.

Segment 2: George Ohana, one of the carvers from Holman Island, talks about his carvings. Other artists also talk about the benefits of the arts and crafts shop, which was opened in 1963.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: carving, prints, stencils, Holman Art Shop, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00349iq-89-inuk>

Program name: Amitturmiut
Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: During Christmas in 1988, the Anglican Church in Igloolik holds a service. The congregation sings hymns. Young people square dance at the community hall. The public also plays traditional Christmas games.

Segment 2: A short public service announcement about cleaning up garbage featuring puppets from the Takuginai children's program.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Anglican Church, hymns, square dancing, games, Christmas, PSA, garbage cleanup, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00348iq-85-inuk>

Qiilugaq

Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: This is a step-by-step teaching video (1986) on how to cut a (strong) rope out of bearded sealskin. The whole process is very well explained.

Segment 2: A short public service announcement about cleaning up garbage featuring puppets from the Takuginai children's program.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: traditional knowledge, bearded sealskin, skin rope, garbage cleanup, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00347iq-89-inuk>

Angunasutulirijit

Program name: Amitturmiut

Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: Opens with an ajaaja song. In 1989, Cain Iqqaqsaq, Abraham Ulayuruluk and David Angutijuaq from the Hunters and Trappers Association (HTA) talk about their programs in the community of Igloolik. They talk about the difference between the wildlife officer and the role of the HTA. Their observation is that there's a difference between traditional practices and government practices regarding the harvesting of animals.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: ajaaja, Hunters and Trappers Association, wildlife officer, traditional harvesting, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00346iq-90-inuk>

Program name: Amitturmiut

Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: This video is about the community of Kugaaruk, Nunavut in 1990. Various scenes around the community are shown: landscapes, dog team sledding, school learning, a youth skit about drugs and alcohol, military arriving for an on-the-land exercise, and square dancing to accordion/band music.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: military exercise, acting, drugs and alcohol, square dancing, music, school, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00345iq-91-inuk>

Nunavut Annirijavut

Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: This 1991 program shows a variety of scenes around the community of Taloyoak, Nunavut during the Christmas season including dancing and games. Some elders are interviewed about their recollections of early contact with White people.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: early contact, Christmas, games, dancing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00344iq-92-inuk>

Nunavut Annirijavut

Program name: Amitturmiut

Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: In 1992, people from Igloolik take the microphone and send their greetings to relatives and friends.

Segment 2: People ice fish and camp near Igloolik.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: ice fishing, camping, spring time, greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00343iqqag-85-inuk>

Program name: Qaggiq

Qaggiq (Gathering Place) was a current affairs program (refers to a large igloo built for the gathering of several families).

Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Paul Quassa

Segment 1: In 1985, Paul Quassa interviews Donat Milortok (of Nunavut Tunngavik Inc.) about the creation of Nunavut. This is about a project on land identification of the land that will be claimed for the Nunavut Territory.

Segment 2: Bob Kudloo, a staff member for Nunavut Tunngavik Inc., talks about the land boundary negotiations for the Nunavut Territory.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: creation of Nunavut, Nunavut Tunngavik Inc., land identification, land boundaries, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00585iqqau-94-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat.

Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Segment 1: In 1994, people in Baker Lake go ice fishing in the springtime. This is a very good time for families to enjoy the weather.

Segment 2: Students from the school in Igloolik go on an exchange trip with students from an Ottawa school. The students talk about their experience.

Segment 3: High school students in Rankin Inlet are taught how to prepare seal skins with an ulu. One of the students is interviewed about her experience.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: seals, seal skin, ulu, student exchange, fishing, ice fishing, camping, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00584iq-93-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaat

Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Segment 1: This is a video of people from Baker Lake and Iqaluit in 1993 saying their Christmas greetings to friends and relatives.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas, greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00580iqgau-97-05-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Segment 1: This is a 1997 compilation of old videos from the Qaujisaut program along with background music.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00577iqkip-91-inuk>

Program name: Kippinguijautiit

Kippinguijautiit (Things to Pass Time By): This program entertains the audience with funny and interesting stories on traditional and contemporary Inuit way of life. Kippinguijautiit features northern musical talent and coverage of games and special events. Kippinguijautiit was the most popular Inuktitut language program from the audience survey conducted in 1992. Kippinguijautiit is a half-hour program for the 16 to 60 year old age group. Kippinguijautiit was produced and packaged in Iqaluit with segments provided by our other production centres.

1985 – 2009 approx.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Rebecca Soucie-Anaviapik

Segment 1: This shows different teams playing against each other in a 1991 curling championship in Iqaluit. Canadian Airlines sponsored this competition.

Segment 2: This is a music video from Sisimiut, Greenland.

Includes a short government sponsored public service announcement about cleaning up garbage.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, curling, PSA, garbage cleanup, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00576iq-inuk>

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: This is a music video with children doing a wide variety of outdoor and indoor activities in Iqaluit including gathering small fish at low tide, shots of local plants and flowers, singing and swimming, etc. A music festival in Iqaluit is also shown.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: gathering fish, plants, flowers, children, concert, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00574iqcam-87-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak

Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Ada Todd

Interviewer: James Kavana

Segment 1: In 1987, two by-law enforcement officers talk about the speed limit on the roads and streets of Cambridge Bay. One of them drives around the community catching dogs. He tries to find out who they belong to.

Segment 2: This video ends with indoor Inuit games by the Cambridge Bay Arctic Sports Team.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: by-law, dog catcher, Inuit games, Cambridge Bay Arctic Sports Team, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00573iqcam-85-inuk>

Koviahoktittiyut

Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Ada Todd

Segment 1: In 1985, Elders in Cambridge Bay show some traditional games. They play with an ajagaq. It involves a bone with a stick at the end - you try to pin the stick into the hole to win or to tell a story to continue. They sing ajaaja songs and they also show how the pulling game works - two women position themselves and try to pull each other over.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: ajaajaa, ajagaq, Inuit games, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00570iqnun-86-inuk>

Program name: Nunattinni

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Nipisha Bracken

Segment 1: In 1986, John Hicks from Nunasi Corporation talks about the sealing industry. The seal ban has affected the hunters' sale of sealskins. The Nunasi Corporation is looking for ways to help the seal hunters.

Segment 2: Giusa Uniuqsagaq (sp?) talks about dog teams and skidoos. He makes a comparison of the two ways of hunting transportation.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for

your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: seal ban, Nunasi Corporation, sealskins, dog team, skidoo, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00568iqgau-94-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Segment 1: In 1994, Rankin Inlet drummer Paliak Kapuk talks about his life, his interest in drumming and how he started.

Segment 2: An Igloolik band sings and plays at the community hall.

Segment 3: Baker Lake family went back to their traditional fishing grounds. Sandy Irsigak went to Kitikkat with her family to go fishing in the summer.

Segment 4: Nick Newberry, a teacher at the high school in Iqaluit, talks about the benefits of the Terry Fox Program.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Terry Fox Program, fishing, river, Kitikkat, drumming, music, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00567iq-87-inuk>

Amittuq

Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: This 1987 video is about training dog teams. Different men who have had dog teams talk about how to train them.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: dog teams, husky dogs, survival skills, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00566iqbak-92-inuk>

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Peter Tapatai

Segment 1: This is a short 1992 documentary about friendship between children in Baker Lake, Nunavut with Super Shamou. Super Shamou is shown saving the boys from difficult situations.

Segment 2: Peter Irniq talks about his skidoo trip to Baker Lake. He's on a trip with his son and Niki Noolook from Rankin Inlet, Nunavut. They are travelling up to Naujaat and Gjoa Haven and other communities.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: skidoo trip, friendship, Super Shamou, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00565iqqau-95-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Noah Papatsie

Segment 1: This is a collection of old videos with music in the background.

Segment 2: In 1995, three men go hunting. There isn't much dialogue.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: ice, hunting, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00564iqgau-94-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Noah Papatsie

Segment 1: In 1994, Baker Lake resident, Jacob Ikinilik, talks about the weather and directions in Inuktitut.

Segment 2: This shows different photos with music in the background.

Segment 3: Rankin Inlet students go hunting with an instructor.

Segment 4: Coral Harbour students make a short film about working at the co-op.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: hunting, music, weather, directions, filmmaking, Co-op, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00563iqbak-00-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

This whole video shows people from Taloyoak and Baker Lake saying their Christmas greetings to friends and relatives in 2000.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00562igtakul-91-inuk>

Program name: Takulauqsimajasi

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Abraham Tagalik

Segment 1: In 1991, Theresa Taqtaq talks about her qulliq. She explains how they were able to survive using the snow and the qulliq.

Segment 2: The Inuit Broadcasting crew reports from Ethiopia where the population is starving. Inuit were able to donate funds to help with the famine.

Segment 3: Charlie Adams ends the video with his singing.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, starvation, Ethiopia, igluvigaq, igloo, snow, qulliq, soap stone lamp, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00561igkip-89-inuk>

Program name: Kippinguijautiit

Kippinguijautiit (Things to Pass Time By): This program entertains the audience with funny and interesting stories on traditional and contemporary Inuit ways of life. Kippinguijautiit features northern musical talent and coverage of games and special events. Kippinguijautiit was the most popular Inuktitut language program from the audience survey conducted in 1992. Kippinguijautiit is a half-hour program for the 16 to 60 year old age group. Kippinguijautiit was produced and packaged in Iqaluit with segments provided by our other production centres. 1985 – 2009 approx.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Rebecca Anaviapik-Soucie

Segment 1: In 1989, the meat plant in Iqaluit sells meat and fish from local hunters. Jim Curry, who is the manager, talks about how they prepare the fish for sale. He shows how the fish are smoked.

Segment 2: Simonie Alainga talks about his trip to hunt walrus. He tells how they prepared the walrus meat. The hunters also tried to catch a baby walrus.

Segment 3: Ugjualuk from Cape Dorset tells a funny story about when he and his friends were on a boat.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: comical story, walrus, hunting, fish, smoked fish, meat plant, boating, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00560iqqau-96-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaut

Qaujisaut (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaut. Qaujisaut taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaut was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaut was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaut was produced in

Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.
Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Oo Aqpiq

Segment 1: This is a 1996 health promotion video encouraging people to stop smoking cigarettes. Uluti (Oolootie) Kunuk talks about the effects of smoking.

Segment 2: A 13-year old from Rankin Inlet made an ajaaja song about her little brother.

Segment 3: A young man in Igloolik shows his drawings. He also plays guitar.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, artwork, drawings, ajaaja, cigarettes, smoking, health promotion, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00503ignun-89-inuk>

Program name: Nunattinni
Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: Using their own airplane, the telephone company goes to communities to set up telephones in 1989. The workers are shown setting up the phone lines and the telephones.

Segment 2: Bezal Jesudason is a business owner in Resolute Bay. He has a store and hotel.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: business, hotel, store, telephone, telephone company, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00502iqqag-97-inuk>

Program name: Qaggiq
Qaggiq (Gathering Place) was a current affairs program (refers to a large igloo built for the gathering of several families).

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Albert Kimmaliarjuk

Segment 1: The presidential candidates for the Kivalliq Inuit Association are campaigning in 1997. The candidates each say what they would do if they were elected as president.

Segment 2: The public is asked what they would want each candidate to think about should they get elected as president of the Kivalliq Inuit Association.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: elections, Kivalliq Inuit Association, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00501igtakuj-92-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Jose Kusugak

Segment 1: In 1992, Jose Kusugak, Charlie Panigoniak and Cecile Panika talk about some recent events they were able to film. These mostly involve a music festival and dancing.

Segment 2: Lizzie Ittinuar talks about and demonstrates what she does with sealskins. She shows different kinds of skins and tells what she plans to do with each.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: sealskin, music, dancing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00500iqqag-88-05-inuk>

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Paul Quassa

Segment 1: In 1988, Louis Tapardjuk from Igloodik talks about the identification of lands. This is a special show on this topic involving outpost camps, as the rights to these lands might be an issue in the future once Nunavut is established.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: outpost camps, identification of lands, land claims, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00499iqgag-84-07-inuk>

Nunavut

When we get Nunavut, what will we get?

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Paul Quassa

Location: Iqaluit

Segment 1: In 1984, Louis Tapardjuk talks with Paul Quassa about the jobs that will be coming up in the new territory of Nunavut. The Land Claims Agreement says that more employment will be made available to Inuit. Priority hiring for Inuit will be in effect.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Land Claims Agreement, priority hiring, jobs, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00496iq-82-inuk>

Producer: Arviat – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: This is a collection of old photos and activities happening in Arviat in 1982. There is a group of people singing. Arsene Angalik and Paul Kattuk Otuk also play guitar and organ while singing.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: photos, music, singing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00482iq-94-inuk>

Producer: Pond Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: This is a video on the Financial Management Workshop held in Pond Inlet in 1994. Small business owners attend the workshop to learn about running their own businesses.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: workshop, business management, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00478iq-87-inuk>

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Rebecca Anaviapik- Soucie

Segment 1: Greenland bands sing to the crowd at an Alaskan conference in 1987.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, concert, Greenland, Alaska, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00634iqcam-87-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak

Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Sarah Green

Segment 1: In 1987, the Hamlet of Cambridge Bay issues a cull for foxes because the community is worried that the foxes might have rabies.

Segment 2: James Kavana talks to some trappers of foxes. This is a report to the community about the problem with the foxes.

Segment 3: The Kitikmeot Divisional Board of Education meets about alcohol abuse. They are worried about the students who are away from home and going to high school in Yellowknife, NWT.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: fox cull, trappers, alcohol abuse, high school students, Greenland, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00630iq-inuk>

This is a music video showing footage from Iqaluit and Greenland.

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00629iqcam-86-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Sarah Green

Segment 1: In 1986, a brief history of Holman Island is given with Agnes Nigiyok. She talks about how Holman Island became a community.

Segment 2: Frank Kuptana talks about drum dancing and why the people drum danced.

Segment 3: This is a short documentary about the print shop in Holman Island.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: print shop, drum, drum dancing, ajaaja, community history, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00626iqbak-92-inuk>

Program name: Unnukkut

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Peter Tapatai

Segment 1: In 1992, Joe Tigulagaq, a wildlife officer in Baker Lake, talks about and shows different kinds of traps that are approved for use by trappers.

Segment 2: Titus Seeteenak was a special constable for the police force. He used to help the police while they went on patrols to help people on the land.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: starvation, plane crash, police, special constable, Animals, traps, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00625iqbak-92-92-inuk>

Program name: Unnukkut

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Peter Tapatai

Segment 1: In 1992, Susan Toolooktook walked a long distance to help fundraise for those that don't have enough food.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: fundraising, walk, lack of food, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00624igtaluj-93-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut

Producer: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

Host: Charlie Panigoniak

Segment 1: Joan Kalasiq talks about a fashion show in 1993 and the types of traditional clothing featured.

Segment 2: Some men who have dogs in Rankin talk about the dog team race they will be participating in.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: dog team, racing, fashion show, traditional clothing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00623iqgran-93-inuk>

Program name: Takujuminaqtut / Takuyuminaqtut
Producer: Rankin Inlet, Nunavut
Host: Jose Kusugak

Segment 1: This is a collection of various videos on celebrations from the past.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: celebrations, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00613iqqau-96-inuk>

Program name: Qaujisaat
Qaujisaat (To See, To Find Out) was a program directed mainly toward Inuit youth facing hard choices - caught between two cultures. It is entertaining, fast and fun. Up and coming young musical talent was promoted on Qaujisaat. Qaujisaat taught young people important life skills as well as touching on timely health issues and covering stories important to youth. Qaujisaat was interactive – some had contest segments and a write-in/email segment. Qaujisaat was a half-hour program for the 13 to 15 year old age group. Qaujisaat was produced in Iqaluit with segments also being provided by our other centres.
Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Shirley Qilak

Segment 1: People from Taloyoak give their Christmas greetings in 1996 to friends and relatives in Nunavut.

Segment 2: Taloyoak talent show.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: talent show, Christmas, greetings, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00715iqiqqa-86-inuk>

Host: Elisapee Davidee

Segment 1: An evangelist from Faith Alive came to Iqaluit in 1986. He addresses the congregation at St. Jude's Anglican Church (via interpreter). The video opens and ends with hymn singing.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: church service, Faith Alive, hymns, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00712iqnuna-91-inuk>

Program name: Ilinniq

Ilinniq (Learning) is a series of mini documentaries profiling some of the most interesting people who live in Nunavut. The series is targeted towards a general audience. Ilinniq features a range of people from politicians to elders to authors to actors. Each episode explores the accomplishments, the obstacles and the passion behind these fascinating individuals. The series also features mini profiles of people in addition to the main subject. This series, through its travel to various communities, ensures the widest possible inclusion of the Nunavut communities and their unique dialects.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Leetia Ineak

Segment 1: This video gives information on how to make a sealift order. It follows a family in 1991 making a personal order for supplies they will need to use during the year.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: sealift orders, shipment, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00711iginuk-83-inuk>

Majuraktut

Producer: John Aulajut - Arviat – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: In 1983, people from Arviat going up the Maguse River. People are shown camping, fishing and navigating swift flowing rapids. The men are Peter Suwasiok, Leo Ulayuk, Paul Pemik and Jasper Gibbons. The man who speaks at the end of the video is Leo Ulayok.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Maguse River, canoe, survival skills, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00706iqkip-85-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak

Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: In 1985, the local radio in Cambridge Bay broadcasts everyday to keep the public informed. David Paniak is the person who works at the radio station.

Segment 2: A man who puts a fishing net under the ice in the wintertime.

Segment 3: This building is for elders to get together and socialize. They are seen here praying and singing.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: local radio, radio station, fish, fishing net, ice, survival skills, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00701iqkipp-90-inuk>

Program name: Kippinguijautiit

Kippinguijautiit (Things to Pass Time By): This program entertains the audience with funny and interesting stories on traditional and contemporary Inuit way of life. Kippinguijautiit features northern musical talent and coverage of games and special events. Kippinguijautiit was the most popular Inuktitut language program from the audience survey conducted in 1992. Kippinguijautiit is a half-hour program for the 16 to 60 year old age group. Kippinguijautiit was produced and packaged in Iqaluit with segments provided by our other production centres. 1985 – 2009 approx.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Rebecca Anaviapik Soucie

Segment 1: The owner of Country Side Café in Apex talks about his business. He promotes meat that is bought locally from hunters.

Segment 2: Okpik Pitseolak from Cape Dorset tells comical stories about her life experiences.

Segment 3: A 12-year-old girl Ane (Mettia) Fontain from Sisimiut, Greenland entertains the crowd that is attending the Inuit Circumpolar Conference with her keyboard music and singing.

Segment 4: The video ends with adult students saying their greetings to others.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, restaurant, comical stories, country foods, restaurant, Greenland, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00695iqqan-87-inuk>

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Aimo Nookiguak

Segment 1: This is a 1987 phone-in show with a panel discussing the youth criminal justice system and related legislation. A portion of a film, which was sponsored by Inuit Tapiriit Kanatami, is shown about youth crime and the prosecution process. It includes some dramatization.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: youth crimes, legislation, prosecution, court, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00764iq-85-inuk>

Producer: Arviat – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: In 1985, the RCMP Bison Band went to Arviat, Nunavut to entertain the public with their music and songs.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, RCMP, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00762iq-93-inuk>

Program name: Amitturmiut

Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Julie Ivalu

Segment 1: In 1994, some teachers in training perform traditional children songs, actions to accordion music and other games. There is also an explanation of the teacher education program. The elders are also seen playing games.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for

your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: teacher education program, Inuit games, songs, music, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00761iqinumm-58-inuk>

Nunatsiakmiut

Inungmarilirijit Iglulingmi

Producer: Joanasie Salomonie, Ooleepeeka Gordon, Terry Pearce - Iqaluit - Nunatsiakmiut Community Television Society / Nunatsiakmiut Film Society was launched in Frobisher Bay in 1975. This was the earliest Inuit filmmaking group in the Eastern Arctic. Nunatsiakmiut means 'People From the Beautiful Land.'

Host: Joanasie Salomonie

Segment 1: The chair of the elders' committee in Igloolik, Eugene Amarualik, explains about the changes in the clothing used to survive in cold weather. Dolls with traditional clothing are shown along with scenes of traditional settings. He also talks about traditional clothing made out of caribou. Ajaaja songs and drumming are performed.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: drumming, ajaaja, traditional clothing, dolls, survival skills, traditional clothing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00757iqtoh-88-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak

Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: James Panioyak

Segment 1: In 1988, James Kavana talks with the Anglican and Pentecostal church ministers and the Catholic priest in Cambridge Bay and then others, including Mary Sillett, about their views on abortion. The Regional Health Boards also meet about abortion.

Segment 2: People from Kugluktuk singing ajaaja, drumming and dancing.

Segment 3: Sarah Green gives information on smoking and cancer. A couple of medical personnel demonstrate cervical cancer screening using a plastic model and talk about other cancers.

The video ends with square dancing outdoors.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: smoking, cancer, drumming, ajaaja, singing, dancing, abortion, cervical cancer screening, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00748iqil-91-inuk>

Iluqat

Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: In 1991, the communities of Igloolik and Hall Beach enjoy ice fishing during a fishing derby.

Segment 2: Kipanik and his family are moving to Igloolik from Repulse Bay. Phillip Kipanik answers questions about his trip.

Ajaaja singing closes the video.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: fishing derby, ice fishing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00612iqbak-80-inuk>

Producer: Baker Lake Production Centre – probably during the Inukshuk Project

Segment 1: This shows a Christmas church service with Armand Tagoona in 1980. A variety of activities, including Inuit games, ajaaja songs, and drum dancing, which took place during Christmas time, are also shown. A French priest also gives his Christmas and New Years greetings.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas games, dog teams, square dance, ajaaja, drum dancing, Inuit games, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00611iqtoh-86-18-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Ada Todd

Segment 1: This is a public meeting with the Hamlet Council in Cambridge Bay.

Segment 2: This is a short information video about road safety. Because there were too many road accidents, the Hamlet has had to make more bylaws regarding road safety.

Segment 3: The Arctic Co-op holds a public general meeting. They also have an election for board members.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Arctic Co-ops, road safety, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00610iqtoh-86-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: James Paniyok

Segment 1: An office procedures course was offered at Arctic College. All the students taking a course are female. Peggy Garet, the course instructor explains the course. The students also talk about the course.

Segment 2: Frank Anaaluk, an elder, talks about the beginning of the community of Cambridge Bay. He also talks about his life story.

Segment 3: The Hunters and Trappers Association chairperson talks about the association.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: hunters and trappers association, nomadic life, Arctic Co-ops, road safety, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00609iq-86-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak

Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: James Paniyok

Segment 1: Elder Walter Topilak and Effie Kakayak talk about how it was when Kugluktuk started as a community. They have seen big changes from the life style they lived before the establishment of the community.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: community startup, elder, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00608iqtoh-85-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak

Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: John Komak and Ada Todd

Segment 1: After their election, the new members of the Hamlet Council are asked what they would like to accomplish during their term.

Segment 2: James Kavana interviews elder Pat Topiluruk about his life.

Segment 3: Kugluktuk's Arctic Co-op history.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Arctic Co-op, elder, election, hamlet, Nunavut Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00607iqcam-86-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: John Komak and Ada Todd

Segment 1: Kitikmeot Inuit games. This shows competitive sports being played between communities.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuit games, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00606iqtakul-91-inuk>

Program name: Takulauqsimajasi
Host: Abraham Tagalik

Segment 1: The Hamlet built an access road to the water lake for public use. The road has improved people's ability to go into the campgrounds.

Segment 2: Men in Igloolik go walrus hunting. They also prepare walrus meat for fermentation in caches. The meat will be removed from the caches in the wintertime.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: walrus, hunting, water, road, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00605igtakul-91-inuk>

Program name: Takulauqsimajasi
Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Abraham Tagalik

Segment 1: Igloodik community members enjoy springtime camping and fishing outside of Igloodik at Avamartulikvik. Simon Quassa films this.

Segment 2: In Rankin Inlet, Rhoda Karetak is shown cleaning sealskin with ulu and describing how it's done. She also talks about different ways of preparing sealskins for kamiks (skin boots).

Segment 3: The National Film Board of Canada shows a legend about how fog came about as the story is told in Northern Quebec. The title is "The Man and the Giant".

Segment 4: Charlie Panigoniak sings with a band from Arviat, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, legend, fog, giant, Northern shark, eggs, camping, tents, seal skin, kamik, traditional clothing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00604iqcam-84-inuk>

Host: John Komak

Segment 1: The Kitikmeot Summer Games held in Taloyoak, Nunavut.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuit summer games, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00603iq-82-inuk>

Pivalliajut

Host: Saimatuk Michael

Segment 1: This whole video is about television coming into the town of Igloolik, Nunavut. Joe Attagutluk interviews people about the “Yes or No” vote about allowing a television channel. There are different opinions. Elders are also asked about their views.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: television, community vote, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00596iqtoh-87-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak

Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Alan Maksagak

Segment 1: The Kitikmeot Inuit Summer games. All the surrounding communities go to Cambridge Bay to compete.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuit summer games, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00591iqbak-inuk>

Host: Peter Tapatai

Segment 1: The Inuit Committee on National Issues (ICNI) resulted from a meeting of Inuit Tapirisat of Canada (ITC) (Inuit Tapiriit Kanatami). This video gives an overview about the committee and what their goal is regarding the federal political world.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuit politics, ITC, Inuit Tapirisat of Canada, Inuit Committee on National Issues, ICNI, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00588iqinuks-80-inuk>

Program name: Inukshuk

Producer: Inukshuk Project – Inuit Tapirisat of Canada (ITC)

Host: Joanasie Salomonie

Segment 1: This is a special on how the radio in Greenland operates. This team is attending the Inuit Tapirisat of Canada (ITC) (Inuit Tapiriit Kanatami) annual general meeting. They also talk about the Inuit Circumpolar Conference (Inuit Circumpolar Council). This is how Inuit Circumpolar Conference began.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuit Circumpolar Conference, Inuit Tapirisat of Canada, ITC, Greenland, Inuit politics, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00586iq-inuk>

Program name: Inukshuk

Producer: Inukshuk Project – Inuit Tapirisat of Canada (ITC)

Host: Sam Itkilik

Segment 1: This is about safety when on a boat and alcohol and boating using actors.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for

your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: boat safety, alcohol, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00558iqcam-88-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Sarah Green

Segment 1: This about home ownership. The Housing Association is promoting home ownership, especially for people living in social housing who can afford a house.

Segment 2: Alan Magsagak sings in Inuktitut and English.

Segment 3: A Community Occupational Program is offered in Cambridge Bay. This is a great program for students who want to upgrade their education and train for a job.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: community occupational program, music, songs, home ownership, social housing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00556iqcam-87-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: James Panioyak

Segment 1: From 1920 to 1960, because muskox herds were becoming scarce, they were never seen around the Cambridge Bay area. There is now a healthy population, so hunters are now able to hunt them. John Maksagak from the Hunters and Trappers Association explains their meat-processing program.

Segment 2: Walter Tupilak talks about the beginning of the community of Kugluktuk.

Segment 3: Elder Jack talks about going to residential school. He talks about the experience of almost losing his Inuinnaqtun language.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: muskox, meat plant, Inuinnaqtun, language loss, community startup, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00555iqcam-88-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: James Kavana

Segment 1: The students of Cambridge Bay put on a concert at Christmas time for the public.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas concert, drumming, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00554iqcam-88-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: James Panioyak

Segment 1: Visitors entertain at the school in Cambridge Bay using puppets to show about special needs.

Segment 2: Abe Kimiatuk, a carver from Taloyoak, talks about his carving. He started carving in 1955.

Segment 3: Bob Kadlun, who is the negotiator for the Tungavik Federation of Nunavut, talks about the process of negotiating for land claims.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: land claims, negotiations, Tungavik Federation of Nunavut, TFN, carving, carver, puppets, special needs, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00553iqcam-89-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Sarah Green

Segment 1: This is about the cadet program in Cambridge Bay and what the program offers to interested youth. The cadets also go hunting out on the land.

Segment 2: This is a good description about the Anglican ladies group in Cambridge Bay and how they help the community in any way they can.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Anglican ladies group, cadets, hunting, life skills, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00547iqgan-92-inuk>

Host: Rebecca Anaviapik-Soucie

Segment 1: This is a phone-in show on ideas for future shows by the Inuit Broadcasting Corporation crew. It's very interesting to hear the ideas that come forward from the callers.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: phone-in, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00534iqgim-99-inuk>

Program name: Qimaivvik

Qimaivvik was a cultural show produced in Baker Lake or Igloolik, but included segments from all of IBC's centres. Topics included: storytelling, hunting and sewing techniques, legends, language, and other traditional practices such as igloo building, etc.

Host: Michael Haqpi

Segment 1: Elizabeth Quinanaq teaches how to make kamiks out of caribou skin.

Segment 2: Before wood came into Inuit territory, Inuit had to use skins for sled material. Silas Aittauq talks about how to make caribou skin sleds in 1949. These are called qamutitautik.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: kamiks, sled, caribou, skin, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00532iq-90-inuk>

Program name: Qaggiq

Qaggiq (Gathering Place) was a current affairs program (refers to a large igloo built for the gathering of several families).

Host: Rebecca Anaviapik-Soucie

Segment 1: This special film on suicide helps us understand how to deal with suicide within a family unit.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: suicide, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00531iq-86-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Ada Todd

Segment 1: Rick Reary is working for the Tunngavik Federation of Nunavut for the Land Identification Program. He explains what he is doing.

Segment 2: Mabel Angulalik talks about her life story. She talks about her family history and also about the area she grew up in.

Segment 3: The Arctic Co-op stores are having a meeting in Cambridge Bay. The organization is looking at promoting membership among the local people.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Arctic Co-op, land identification program, survival skills, before contact, Tungavik Federation of Nunavut, TFN, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00530iq-86-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Ada Todd

Segment 1: Holman Island celebrates the Qingalik Jamboree where people play games and compete. There are traditional games such as bannock making and non-traditional games.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: music, drumming, traditional games, Inuit games, bannock making, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00529iq-86-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Ada Todd

Segment 1: The Kitikmeot Regional Board of Education meets in Cambridge Bay to discuss education issues in the region.

Segment 2: Elder Sam Imingak talks about his life story.

Segment 3: Paul and Bev Omaruituq go to their group campsite each summer to dry fish and live a traditional way of life.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: dry fish, camping, elder, survival skills, before contact, education issues, Kitikmeot Regional Board of Education, Inuit games traditional games, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc/00732iq-baker-lake-1992-06-inukshuk-5>

Program name: Inukshuk□
Inuit Broadcasting Corporation (1982-1992 -10-year Anniversary)
Producer: Rankin Inlet
Host: Albert Kimmarliarjuk

Segment 1: David Mannik from Baker Lake sings ajaaja songs about the hardships he and his family went through many years ago. He also tells stories about those days.

Segment 2: Elders gather in Baker Lake to discuss community and family wellness. Lucien Taparti talks about one of his sons who had committed suicide and the importance of communication within family and communities.

Segment 3: Silas Qijuk is making a snow knife which is called a pana in the Baker Lake dialect.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for

your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Keywords: sled, hockey jersey, ajaaja song, seal skin mitts, grub box, Colman stove, caribou fur, wooden board, pencil trace, wood saw, sawing, knife, electric drill, hacksaw, elders gathering, community wellness, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00518iq-97-inuk>

Program name: Amittuqmiut
Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: This is about seal hunting on ice with youth in Igloolik, Nunavut. Elder Felix Alaralak shares his knowledge on survival skills and seal hunting. It's a great video to learn about how life was for a young person before contact or influence from the outside world.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: traditional living, hunting, seal, sea ice, harpoon, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00517iqkip-89-inuk>

Program name: Nunattini
Nunattinni (In My Home) was a cultural program.
Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Jobie Weetaluktuk

Segment 1: Joanasie Aningmiuq, in Iqaluit, talks about changes in the weather and the dangers of traveling on ice before spring and fall while the ice is breaking and freezing.

Segment 2: John (or Dan?) Beck, a marine biologist, explains why they test beluga whales and what the research means concerning the population of whales near the South Baffin communities and Hudson Bay.

Segment 3: A marine biologist teaches about beluga whales and with the help of Archie Angnakak demonstrates how to measure one.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: beluga, whales, marine biologist, ice formation, survival skills, weather, climate change, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00510iqqim-inuk>

Program name: Qimaivvik

Qimaivvik was a cultural show produced in Baker Lake or Igloolik, but included segments from all of IBC's centres. Topics included: storytelling, hunting and sewing techniques, legends, language, and other traditional practices such as igloo building, etc.

Producer: Baker Lake – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Michael Haqpi

Segment 1: In Baker Lake, Fanny Arnatqik Arnasungaaq and Julie Hannguhaaq talk about their life stories. Fanny also shares about her hardships and what she endured while she was a young wife.

Segment 2: The elders in Taloyoak were taken on a field trip outside the community to have a picnic. They enjoy fishing.

Segment 3: People from Igloolik go fishing. They enjoy the spring weather with their families.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: recollections, inukshuk, fishing, shaman, survival, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00477iqqiq-91-inuk>

Program name: Qiqqitaukkut

Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: Paul Qulittalik talks about stone / sod houses from the past. He gives detailed information on how they were structured. He is on site where there are a variety of different dwelling places from the past.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: sod house, qammaq, inukshuk, fishing, elders, shaman, survival, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00476iq-99-inuk>

Program name: Nunattini
Nunattinni (In My Home) was a cultural program.
Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Rebecca Anaviapik-Soucie

Segment 1: Martha Tikivik talks about how to make an amauti (a baby carrier parka). She shows and names the parts of the amauti and how it should be properly made using traditional patterns.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: baby carrier, amauti, sewing patterns, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00475iq-84-inuk>

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Rita Nashook

Segment 1: In Iqaluit, Mike Gardner talks about his life story. He came from England in a boat and served as an Anglican Minister in Northern Quebec and several of Nunavut's South Baffin communities. He learned Inuktitut fluently.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for

your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Anglican, church, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00473iq-93-inuk>

Hunting and Trapping Lifestyle
(Basic Hunting Skills)

Producer: Arviat – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: David Owingayak

Segment 1: Peter Komak from the Arviat area talks about how it was before contact with outsiders. He tells about hunting and what uses the animals had to the whole community or group. He also talks about survival skills.

Segment 2: This shows the landmarks in the area of Arviat. Owingayak explains the markers that were put on the land. They are recent markers with painted wood and names of places put on the painted wood. This is for people who are out hunting. This was a project put in place by community members since 1976.

Segment 3: Louis Ulayuyyak talks about survival skills. He also talks about what to do when lost on the land while hunting.

Segment 4: Andy Mamgak talks about the care of the environment and the animals.

Segment 5: Elders' Committee Chair Suluk talks about rearing children. They are on the local radio talking about Inuit culture.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: recollections, inukshuk, survival skills, before contact, land markers, hunting, child rearing, environment, animals, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00472iqami-84-inuk>

Anulijusiq
Producer: Igloolik – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: Mark Ijjangiaq talks in detail about dog harnesses and demonstrates what each part is for.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Keywords: harness, anuksaq, dog team, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00462iqtoh-88-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak

Host: Sally Green

Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: This is a short documentary about the Hudson's Bay Company in Cambridge Bay, Nunavut.

Segment 2: Circumpolar Conference in Cambridge Bay, Nunavut. Mary Simon gives a report on the Inuit Circumpolar Conference and an update on the activities of the organization.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Inuit Circumpolar Conference, Hudson's Bay Company, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00457iqnunats-50-inuk>

Program name: Inuit Uplumi – Inuit Today

Producers: David Poisey, Mosesie Kipanik, Joanasie Salamonie, Terry Pearce (or Pierce?) - Nunatsiakmiut

Nunatsiakmiut Community Television Society / Nunatsiakmiut Film Society was launched in Frobisher Bay in 1975. This was the earliest Inuit filmmaking group in the Eastern Arctic. Nunatsiakmiut means 'People From the Beautiful Land.'

Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut

Host: Joanasie Salamonie

Segment 1: This is a short documentary about Alooook Ipeelie, a cartoon and pen and ink artist. He talks about the changes in Inuit life and reflects what he has seen in this drawings.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: pen and ink, sketches, cartoons, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00454iqkik-inuk>

Program name: Kikkutuinnait
Host: Nanasie Naudla

Segment 1: Ian Creery talks about a film project that CBC hired him to do in Iqaluit and Pangnirtung. It concerns the sealskin ban in Europe. They will also film other sea mammals, including beluga.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: sealskin ban, beluga, filming, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00452iqtoh-inuk>

Program name: Tohaknaak
Host: James Kavana
Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: Thomas Suvisak talks about suicide in Nunavut. He talks about his life experience and his thoughts about suicide.

Segment 2: Augustin Arnaituq (or Anaittuq?) talks about the effects of alcohol in general. Alcohol came into their town, Kugaaruk, with the D.E.W. (Distant Early Warning) line contractors. He talks about the negative effects of alcohol on the family unit.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This

video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Distant Early Warning Line, suicide, alcohol, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00259iq-84-nijj>

Program name: Tohaknaak

Host: Ida Todd

Producer: Cambridge Bay – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: Martha Ittimangnak talks about her life story. She was a main character along with her husband in the Netsilik film series, which documented Inuit life as it was before European contact.

Segment 2: The manager of the arts and crafts centre in Kugaaruk, which started in 1979, talks about the program they have.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: arts and crafts, Netsilik film series, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00258iq-84-nijj>

Host: Aimo Nukiruaq (Nookiguak)

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Segment 1: The town of Frobisher Bay (now Iqaluit) celebrates Christmas by singing and playing games at the Anglican Parish Hall.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Christmas, Inuit games, songs, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00253iqkip-98-12-inuk>

Program name: Kippinguijautiit

Kippinguijautiit (Things to Pass Time By): This program entertains the audience with funny and interesting stories on traditional and contemporary Inuit way of life. Kippinguijautiit features northern musical talent and coverage of games and special events. Kippinguijautiit was the most popular Inuktitut language program from the audience survey conducted in 1992. Kippinguijautiit is a half-hour program for the 16 to 60 year old age group. Kippinguijautiit was produced and packaged in Iqaluit with segments provided by our other production centres. 1985 – 2009 approx.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Nanasie Naudla

Segment 1: Michael Maktar, dancing king of Kivalliq, talks about square dancing. He is from Chesterfield Inlet, Nunavut. People square dance in a gym.

Segment 2: Gospel music.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: Gospel music, square dancing, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00252ignun-91-09-inuk>

Program name: Kippinguijautiit

Kippinguijautiit (Things to Pass Time By): This program entertains the audience with funny and interesting stories on traditional and contemporary Inuit way of life. Kippinguijautiit features northern musical talent and coverage of games and special events. Kippinguijautiit was the most popular Inuktitut language program from the audience survey conducted in 1992. Kippinguijautiit is a half-hour program for the 16 to 60 year old age group. Kippinguijautiit was produced and packaged in Iqaluit with segments provided by our other production centres. 1985 – 2009 approx.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Abraham Tagalik

Interviewer: Aimo Nukiruaq (Nookiguak)

Segment 1: In Iqaluit, Kenn Harper talks about his book, "Give Me My Father's Body: The Life of Minik, the New York Eskimo". He talks in detail about the historical information in the book.

Segment 2: Arviat men go seal hunting by canoe. They are also seen butchering the seal.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key Words: historical book, The Life of Minik, seal hunting, canoe, Nunavut, Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00685iqgag-85-inuk-parks>

Program name: Qaggiq

Qaggiq (Gathering Place) was a current affairs program (refers to a large igloo built for the gathering of several families).

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Elisapi Davidee

Segment 1: This is a video documentary on the importance of the National Parks in Nunavut for the preservation of the land and animals. Included are Ellesmere Island (Ellesmere Island National Park Reserve) and Auyuittuq National Park. Also included are clips about the natural resources industry and its impact on our environment.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, Ukiuqtaqtuq (Arctic), Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, Ellesmere Island, Banff National Park, helicopter, glacier, musk ox, ocean oil rig, Montreal industrial site, Iqaluit dump, dead caribou waste, fishing, Pangnirtung (pangniqtuuq), Ajuittuq National Park

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00684iqkipp-97-inuk-kippingujautit-master>

Kippingujautiit (Things to Pass Time By): □ This program entertains the audience with funny and interesting stories on traditional and contemporary Inuit way of life. Kippingujautiit features northern musical talent and coverage of games and special events. Kippingujautiit was the most popular Inuktitut language program from the audience survey conducted in 1992. Kippingujautiit is a half-hour program for the 16 to 60 year old age group. Kippingujautiit was produced and packaged in Iqaluit with segments provided by our other production centres.

1985 – 2009 approx.

Producer: Iqaluit - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Judy Lee

Location: Iqaluit

Segment 1: Eemeelayou Arnaquq narrates as a family camps near the flow-edge in Frobisher Bay. The family goes out on the water to hunt seal. They also hunt ducks and pick their eggs.

Segment 2: Igloodik residents celebrate Canada Day with a community feast of country food and running races around town.

Segment 3: Charlie Panigoniak performs at the Inuksuk High School in Iqaluit.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, Ukiuqtaqtuq (Arctic), Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, camping, spring, canoe, outboard motor, canvas tent, coleman stove, CB radio, eider duck, duck eggs, inuksuks, caribou meat, musical performance

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00683iqiqqa-89-02-inuk-ohaknaak>

Producer: Cambridge Bay - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Location: Cambridge Bay

Host: Sarah Green

Segment 1: The Kitikmeot School District meets about the use of the Alberta Curriculum within the region.

Segment 2: Moses Putuguk is interviewed regarding his upbringing near Cambridge Bay.

Segment 3: James Kavana tells a story about the history of Cambridge Bay including Franklin's Expedition, the Hudson's Bay Company, the Catholic Church and the RCMP.

Segment 4: Cambridge Bay locals square dance at the community hall.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This

video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, Ukiuqtaqtuq (Arctic), Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, RCMP, Catholic Church, Franklin's Expedition, Hudson's Bay Company, square dancing, Alberta Curriculum

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/006777iqinuk-80-76-inuk-inukshuk-grand-opening>

Inukshuk Broadcasting System Grand Opening
Producer: Inukshuk Project - Inuit Tapirisat of Canada (ITC)

Location: Igloolik

Segment 1: The Inukshuk Broadcasting System's grand opening in Igloolik with discussions on its importance as a medium for the Inuit in the Arctic.

Location: Cambridge Bay

Segment 2: A teleconference interview with the Inukshuk staff in Cambridge Bay and a video documentary on Inuit Tapirisat of Canada doing a pilot project of documenting the North.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, Ukiuqtaqtuq (Arctic), Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, helicopter with floats, ship, Inukshuk Broadcasting System grand opening, Hudson's Bay, dog teams, Igloolik Eskimo Co-op, Igloolik Research Centre, caribou skin clothing, Kitikmeot Inuit Association, The Central Arctic Area Council, Central Arctic Regional Winter Games, Santa Claus, Christmas, Anik B Satellite

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00676iqbak-79-inuk-baker-lake-production-center>

Producer: Baker Lake - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Location: Baker Lake

Camera: Charlie Kilula

Segment 1: A video tour of Baker Lake in a vehicle during the fall season.

Segment 2: A sewing instructor is teaching youth proper sewing techniques for caribou skins.

Camera: John Tapatai

Segment 3: The Baker Lake Co-op store manager explains the importance of the store in the community. Prints and carvings made by locals are sold in the store. The store also runs the community home fuel delivery truck.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, Ukiuqtaqtuq (Arctic), Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, caribou skins, sewing, soapstone carvings, print making, husky dog, Baker Lake Co-op, fuel delivery

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00675iqiqa-inuk-canadian-constitution-and-aboriginal-rights>

Canadian Constitution and Aboriginal Rights

Producer: Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Camera: John Tapatai, Aisaki Anuraq, John Tagurnaq, William Sikkati

Segment 1: Inuit all over the NWT (Nunavut) protest due to the Government of Canada's decision to remove Section 34 of the Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

Location: Ottawa

Segment 2: Meetings are held between Inuit at the Inuit Tapirisat of Canada office in Ottawa regarding Section 34 of the Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

Location:

Segment 3: Peter Tapatai interview with Peter Ittinuar regarding the situation surrounding section 34 of the Charter of Rights and Freedoms and how it is affecting Inuit.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, Ukiuqtaqtuq (Arctic), Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, Section 34 Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, Aboriginal Rights

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00668iqkip-81-inuk-canadian-singers-2>

Program name: Kippinguijautiit

Kippinguijautiit (Things to Pass Time By): This program entertains the audience with funny and interesting stories on traditional and contemporary Inuit way of life. Kippinguijautiit features northern musical talent and coverage of games and special events. Kippinguijautiit was the most popular Inuktitut language program from the audience survey conducted in 1992. Kippinguijautiit is a half-hour program for the 16 to 60 year old age group. Kippinguijautiit was produced and packaged in Iqaluit with segments provided by our other production centres. 1985 – 2009 approx.

Producer: Iqaluit – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Location: Iqaluit

Segment 1: Charlie Paniguniahq performs in Frobisher Bay (Iqaluit) in 1981 with various artists, including his wife Lorna and Simeonie Keenainak. He also performs with a band including a drummer and IBC's very own, Henry Naulaq.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, Ukiuqtaqtuq (Arctic), Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, NWT, concert

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00076ri-86-inuk-christmas-concert>

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Charlie Paniguniahq

Camera: Charlie Paniguniahq

Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: Christmas songs and hymns are sung in a church in both Inuktitut and English in Rankin Inlet.

Segment 2: Joan Atuat from Rankin Inlet tells stories of her past experiences.

Segment 3: CBC's Regional Manager in the Kivalliq Region, Jose Kusugak and staff, wish everyone a Happy New Year. Carol Beauchman, Manager, Canada Employment Centre, and Jerry Tanner, Regional Director, NWT Government in Rankin Inlet, also wish everyone a Merry Christmas (1986).

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for

your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, Ukiuqtaqtuq (Arctic), Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, church, hymns, Christmas, acoustic guitar, Government of the Northwest Territories, GNWT, Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, CBC

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00075ri-86-inuk-walk-from-chuchill>

Walk from Churchill

Producer: Arviat - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Charlie Paniguniah

Camera: Charlie Paniguniah, Michael Angalik, Allen Robyn

Location: Kuujjuaq, Arviat

Segment 1: Thomas Tittaq interviews David Uvingajaq and Frank Ijiki about their walk from Kuujjuaq, Nunavik to Arviat in 1986. David and Frank built a lightweight wooden qamutiik (sled), to carry all the gear they need for their trek across the ice.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, Ukiuqtaqtuq (Arctic), Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, Northern Quebec, Nunavik, Nunavut, qamutiik, sled, sea ice

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00074ri-85-inuk-beluga-netting>

Producer: Arviat - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Charlie Paniguniah

Location: Arviat

Segment 1: In 1985, hunters go out in canoes to check on their nets which are designed specifically for catching beluga whales. They find a whale in their net and shoot it.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, Ukiuqtaqtuq (Arctic), Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, canoe, outboard motor, beluga whale, whale net, seagulls, terns

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00073ri-85-inuk-working-at-the-school>

Producer: Arviat - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Paniguniaq
Camera: Charlie Paniguniaq, Asiin Angalik
Location: Arviat

Segment 1: In 1985, Arcie Angalik interviews Leo Aamaq, who teaches shop class in school. He is teaching children to make mini-qamutiit (sleds) and fish jigging handles.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, Ukiuqtaqtuq (Arctic), Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, woodworking, shop class, qamutiik, sled, jigging handle

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00072ri-86-inuk-seal-skin-making>

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Paniguniaq
Camera: Thomas Tittaq, Charlie Paniguniaq
Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: In 1986, Thomas Tittaq interviews Lizzie Ittinuar from Rankin Inlet while she prepares seal skins. Lizzie describes the preparation skills needed for different types of skins and fur in order to make kamiit (seal skin, caribou, polar bear boots).

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, Ukiuqtaqtuq (Arctic), Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, seal skin, kamik (a seal skin boot), polar bear skin, caribou skin

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00071ri-85-inuk-asiormiut>

Asiormiut (Asiaqmiut)

Producer: Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: John Aulajut

Camera: John Aulajut

Location: Ennadai Lake near Arviat

Segment 1: In 1985, elders are flown to Ennadai Lake which is an old settlement near Arviat. The elders, who are going there for a family reunion, arrive with a group from CBC North, and Hana Gartner from the Fifth Estate. Gabriel Gealieau (sp?) is also present. He worked in Ennadai Lake in 1954 as a cook for the Department of Transportation.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, Ukiuqtaqtuq (Arctic), Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, twin otter, Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, CBC North, Fifth Estate, Ennadai Lake, Department of Transportation, Government of Canada, caribou bbq

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00070ri-86-inuk-feast-with-elders>

Feast with Elders

Producer: Rankin Inlet - Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Charlie Paniguniah

Camera: Charlie Paniguniah

Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: Hannah Benoit explains how inutuqait (Inuit elders) from Rankin Inlet are brought out on the land/tundra (nuna) by car to cook meat and bake palaugaaq (bannock) with open flames (igajuit) during the summer. All people are welcome, but the emphasis is on taking elders out of their homes to enjoy the outdoors.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for

your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, Ukiuqtaqtuq (Arctic), Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, igajuit (traditional outdoor cooking), inutuqait (Inuit elders), tupiq (tent), pingasulik (three-wheelers), nuna (tundra), palaugaaq (bannock)

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00069ri-87-inuk-schools-performance>

Rankin Inlet Student Performance

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Paniguniaq
Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: Rankin Inlet school students perform various Christmas (and non-Christmas) songs. They dance with storytelling and a choir sings in both Inuktitut and English.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, (Ukiuqtaqtuq) Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, school concert, Christmas, choir, dancing, singing, costumes

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00058ri-86-inuk-fishing>

Iqalliaqtut (gone fishing)
Producer: Charlie Paniguniaq - Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation
Host: Charlie Paniguniaq
Camera: Charlie Paniguniaq
Assistant Camera: Thomas Tittaq
Location: Rankin Inlet, a lake named Iqaluit (fish)

Segment 1: In 1986, Rankin Inlet locals go out fishing at Iqaluit (fish) Lake during the summer. Using all terrain vehicles (ATVs) on a trail, they drive over 20 kilometers to reach the lake where some people also take their canoes equipped with outboard motors. IBC captured this footage both on land and in a helicopter.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This

video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, (Ukiuqtaqtuq) Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, fishing, helicopter, ATV, all terrain vehicles, tupiit, tents, campsite, summer, geese, canoe, outboard motor

<http://www.isuma.tv/ibc-2/00056ri-86-inuk-helping-for-the-meeting>

What type of snow is proper to build an igluvigaq (igloo)

Producer: Rankin Inlet – Inuit Broadcasting Corporation

Host: Charlie Paniguniaq

Location: Rankin Inlet

Segment 1: Philip Pisuk explains the different types of snow for igluvigaq (igloo) building and he talks about his upbringing.

The Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, established in Canada's territory of Nunavut, has been producing Inuit language video, by, for and about Inuit since 1981. This video is from their collection and has been made available on the Internet for your enjoyment through funding provided by the Government of Canada and the Government of Nunavut.

Key words: Nunavut, (Ukiuqtaqtuq) Arctic, Canadian Inuit, IBC, Inuit Broadcasting Corporation, igluvigaq (igloo)